

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

12:00-Noon-KFI—The world-wide struggle between democracy and communism for what has been described as the "Battle for the Minds of Man" will be the discussion subject for the "American Forum of the Air." Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. and the public opinion prognosticator, George H. Gallup, will be speakers.

5:00-KVX—There will be a special McCarthy-ized Easter fantasy tonight on the Edgar Bergen show. Mortimer Snerd will be a shepherd, who has trouble tending his sheep, while Ray Noble, will be a "hermit."

8:30-KFI—Pierre Monteux and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra features tonight, the soprano voice of Dorothy Warenskjold, as the "Standard Hour" is brought to you from the War Memorial Opera House in the "hilly city."

9:00-KECA—A special broadcast of public affairs nature, under the title of "This Is Our Heritage," which recreates the history of our nation, will be presented by ABC and the full facilities of the network tonight at this time.

SUNDAY, MARCH 25, 1951