

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:00—KNX—Ben Light, the ragtime pianist with the "Light-ening fingers" guests with Lucille Norman.
- 8:00—KHJ—The immortal farewell address of the nation's first President, George Washington, will be delivered by the "Song of Liberty" star, Charles Coburn.
- 8:30—KECA—From the 700 young opera aspirants who applied for "Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air," six semifinalists were aired, and tonight, the winners of the auditions will be named.
- 8:30—KFJ—Struggle within a miniature dictatorship nearly 300 years ago is dramatized in "King of Nantucket," co-starring Donald Crisp and Robert Preston, on "Cavalcade of America."
- 9:00—KECA—"What Is Happening to Your Dollar"? A question we all would like to know, with wage and price controls, inflation, cost-of-living problems important to everyone today. That is the subject to be discussed tonight at "America's Town Meeting of the Air."