

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

10:00-KNX—Soprano Eileen Farrell repeats her concert heard at Carnegie Hall Easter Sunday on the "Philharmonic Symphony" today. Hailed as a great Wagner singer, she will sing the operatic arias "Love Death," from "Tristan and Isolde," and "Immolation," from "Goetterdaemmerung."

3:30-KECA—Prominent personalities have been assigned as editors of the magazine digest titled "This Week at Home." This series will review music and books, teen-age and women's activities and human interest stories.

4:00-KHJ—Jack Kirkwood, who has his own week-day show on this network and is known as the hardest-working comic in the business, is the guest of Bill Stewart as they celebrate "April 1" on "Harmony House."

5:00-KNX—Wac Private "Charlotte" McCarthy, complete with blonde wig and skirts, mingles with the girls in the service in an effort to recruit some new numbers for his little black book . . . only the singing of Margaret Whiting rescues him from this jam. . . . It is really the "Egar Eergen-Charlie McCarthy Show," you know.
