

By TOM E.

Margaret Truman, who made a detour from her singing career to appear with Jimmy Stewart in a straight dramatic role, gueststars today on the final "Big Show" program of the season. It is reported that this will not only be the final broadcast of the season, but the wind-up for the show itself.

An all-celebrity bill is to be presented today, with names such as; Fred Allen and Portland Hoffa, Groucho Marx, Ginger Rogers, Lucienne Boyer and George Jessel.

Meredith Willson, swings the stick for the orchestral direction of this final bit of extravaganza, which is aired at 3 o'clock over KFI.
