

ON RADIO TONIGHT

Richard Diamond, private detective, is framed in the Dick Powell starrer, offered at 8 on KECA. He takes quite a beating but comes back.

Bogus prospectors get a big surprise when they run into Wild Bill Hickok on KHJ at 5:30 and the life savings of one man really are saved.

Bandleader Ray Noble and singer-comedian Dennis Day will be guest stars of the Doris Day Show on KNX at 8:30.

Ozzie Nelson gets as excited when a circus comes to town as he did when a youngster so his children work for their tickets like he once did. This is on the Ozzie and Harriet show on KECA at 9.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., and other speakers prominent in the campaign to win convention delegates for Gen. Eisenhower will appear on "Presidential Profiles" on KNX at 7. It is the first time the general has been represented on this program.

A jewel thief's moll and her treacherous accomplices lead the FBI to a cache of stolen gems on "This Is Your FBI," dramatization of "The Wheel of Fortune" on KECA at 8:30.

The Johnny Bratton-Del Flanagan bout will be heard on KECA at 7.