YALE-IN-CHINA GROUP PLANS STUDENT AID

NEW HAVEN, June 10 — (AP) The Yale-in-China Association, handcuffed by communist-imposed curbs, will concentrate its efforts in assisting Chinese students in this country next year.

Reuben A. Holden, assistant to the president of Yale and secretary of Yale-in-China, announced today that this program would replace the association's active work in China. He spoke at the organization's 49th annual meeting here.
