

Evening Radio Highlights

- 6:16—You and the World: John Foster Dulles on 'Freedom'—WCHS
- 7:00—Robert G. Lewis, with Hot Records from Paris—WCHS
- 7:05—'Someone Cares', B'nai B'rith Drama; Sol Robinson, talk—WLIZ
- 7:30—PREMIERE: 'Mr. Mercury', Circus Mystery—WNAB*
- 8:00—Cavalcade: 'Sound of the Great Bell' with Leo Bowman—WNBC
- 8:00—English Speaking Union Banquet in London; Talks by Eisenhower, Adee, Morrison and Churchill—WOR
- 8:00—'Chance of a Lifetime' with John Reed King, from Camp Kilmer—WNAB*
- 8:05—Symphony Hall: Goldmark Violin Concerto in A minor—WQXR
- 8:30—'Dangerous Assignment' with Brian Donlevy—WNBC
- 8:30—Official Detective: 'Death from Down Under'—WIGG, WOR
- 8:30—'Mr. and Mrs. North': Joseph Curtin and Alice Frost in 'Dead Ringer'—WCHS
- 8:30—Music for Connoisseur: Brahms' 'Variations on a Theme of Haydn' and Scarlatti's Sonatas—WNYC
- 8:00—PREMIERE: 'It's Higgins, Sir' with Harry McNaughton, Vinton Hayworth, Peggy Allenby and others—WNBC
- 8:00—Town Meeting: 'Is Our Security Endangered by Congressional Hearings?'. Sen. Russell B. Long (D., La.) and Rep. O. E. Armstrong (R., Mo.)—WNAB*
- 9:00—'Life with Luigi' with J. Carroll Nash—WCHS
- 9:30—Jack Pearl show, with Mimi Benzell—WNBC
- 9:30—'The Bickersons', Frances Langford and Lew Parker—WCHS
- 10:00—'Big Town' with Walter Greaza and Fran Carlen—WNBC
- 10:00—Capitol Cleakroom: Hon. Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio)—WCHS
- 10:00—BBC World Theater: 'A Tale of Two Cities'—WNYC
- 10:05—Showcase: Beethoven Symphony No. 7 in A—WQXR