

Today's Radio Highlights

Drama

7 p.m.—Pete Kelly's Blues (WIBA): Jack Webb as cornetist involved with wife of recording company owner . . . Mr. Chameleon (WKOW): poison kills famous man.

7:30 p.m.—Dr. Christian (WKOW): Jean Hersholt clears fugitive of murder charge . . . Fat Man (WISC): knife-wielding old lady threatens detective.

8:30 p.m.—Mr. District Attorney (WIBA): prosecutor proves elderly golfer's death wasn't accidental.

9 p.m.—Big Story (WIBA): Texas reporter points to young bandit-killer.

+ + +

Music

7:45 p.m.—George Morgan (WIBA): and the Whippoorwills; "Little Liza Jane," "Ring on Your Finger," "Ezekiel Saw de Wheel."

10:30 a.m.—Jack Berch (WIBA): "I'm an Old Cowhand," "If," "Mary Rose."

4:30 p.m.—Music of the Masters (WHA): "Piano Concerto No. 2," Rachmaninoff . . . Curt Massey Time (WBBM): "Come On-a My House," "Loveliest Night of the Year."

5:15 p.m.—Jack Smith (WBBM): and Dinah Shore; "Love Ya, Honey," "Shanghai," "I Get Ideas."

5:30 p.m.—Club 15 (WBBM): "Because of You," "Let the Rest of the World Go By," "My Truly, Truly Fair."

7:45 p.m.—Disc Jockey Contest (WFOW): Ron LaBlond.

8:15 p.m.—Guest Star (WFOW): Nat "King" Cole.

9 p.m.—FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Aida."

9:30 p. m. — Meredith Wilson with Frank Loesser, composer of "Guys and Dolls" music.

+ + +

Sports

12:25 p.m.—Baseball (WISC): Cardinals at Chicago.

4:30 p.m.—Harness Race (WISC): Fox Stakes at Indianapolis State fair.

5:45 p.m.—Sports Parade (WIBA): Jack Newman interviews Coach Willis Jones on West high school's 1951 football prospects.

8 p.m.—Boxing (WKOW): Archie Moore vs. Embrell Davidson . . .

Baseball (WCFL): White Sox at St. Louis.

+ + +

Discussion

10:30 a. m.—Women Voters (WHA): "Post-High School Needs in Wisconsin."

8 p. m. — Freshman Forum (WHA-FM): "The Human Animal Today," Prof. William Howells.

+ + +

For Children

4:45 p. m.—The Kids' Club (WIBA): "Tubby the Tuba" and other stories.

+ + +

Miscellaneous

10 a. m.—Homemakers (WHA): "The Family Today," Mrs. Lydia A. Lynde; "Premium Foods from the State Fair."

WHA and WHA-FM