

Week at 10:30.

---

ON RADIO . . . Wild Bill Hickok uses Jingles as Hamlet to trap some six-gun artists on KHJ at 1:30. . . . "American Forum of the Air" devotes its program to "Issues and Candidates for 1952" on KFI at 2. . . . The girl whom "Tallulah" advised to try to stay 21 forever, June Valli, takes over the singing spot on "Stop the Music" on KECA at 5. . . . At 5 and 9 Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer come to you with their plans for earning Christmas money. The world of commerce proves very confusin' to these work dodgers but very enlightening to the audience. Heard on the CBS station, KNX.