

1:30 p.m. — American Forum (WIBA): "How Much Foreign Aid Can We Afford?" Reps. Abraham Ribicoff (D-Conn.), Jacob Javits (R-N.Y.), B. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.), W. J. B. Dorn (D-S.G.)
 5 p.m. — Later Than You Think (WFOV): "The Theory and Practice of Hell," Ralph Peterson.

DIETRICH SHRINER
 * * *

Drama

11:30 a.m. — Eternal Light (WMAQ): "Without Frontiers."
 3 p.m. — World Theater (WHA): "The Calendar."
 3:30 p.m.—Martin Kane (WIBA): murder witness disappears. Proudly We Hall (WFOV): "Journey Eastward."
 4 p.m.—Whitehall 1212 (WIBA): drama based on Scotland Yard files.
 4:30 p.m. — Silent Men (WIBA): Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as federal agent warring on smuggling ring.
 Greatest Story (WENR): "As This Little Child" . . . Mr. Chameleon (WKOW): "Murder and the Snake Charmer."
 6:30 p.m.—Gabby Hayes (WISC): new Western series; "Buffalo Bill," with Everett Sloane.
 7:30 p.m. — Theater Guild (WIBA): Alfred Lunt, Lynn Fontanne in "I Know My Love."
 8 p.m. — Meet Corliss Archer (WKOW): begins 10th year on CBS.
 8:15 p.m.—Cafe Istanbul (WISC): new series starring Marlene Dietrich.
 8:30 p.m.—Meet Millie (WBBM): Audrey Totter's comedy series at new hour.

WILSON

DAVIS
 * * *

Documentary

9:05 p.m. — The People Act (WBBM): new program, with Robert Trout as narrator; story of Gary, Ind., women's cleanup campaign.

RAINS

THE LUNTS
 * * *

Music

9 a.m.—Devotional Music (WHA): "Motet No. 3," Bach.
 9:30 a.m. — Cathedral Echoes (WHA): "Two Chorale Variations," Peeters.
 10 a.m.—Symphony Hall (WHA): Brahms' violin concerto.
 10:15 a.m. — University Band (WIBA): "Dunedin," "Orange Blossom," "From Hand to Hand," "The Service Musician."
 10:45 a.m.—Russian Male Chorus (WIBA): Christmas season of Eastern Orthodox churches.

 1:30 p.m.—N. Y. Philharmonic-Symphony (WBBM): Guido Cantelli, conductor, Westminster choir, boys' chorus; "Magnificat," Monteverdi; four Frescobaldi pieces; "Symphony No. 5," Beethoven . . .
 Piano Playhouse (WISC): George Shearing, Frederick Marvin, guests.
 2:30 p.m. — Stars on Parade (WFOV): Freddie Martin.
 4 p.m. — Country Music Time (WFOV): Lefty Frizzell.
 5 p.m. — March of Dimes (WIBA): Philadelphia orchestra, under Eugene Ormandy; "Concerto for Orchestra in D Major," Handel-Ormandy; third movement, Tchaikowsky's sixth symphony.
 7 p.m.—Sunday Night Concert (WHA-FM): "Airborne" symphony, Blitzstein.
 8:45 p.m. — Guest Star (WISC): the Ink Spots.
 9 p.m. — Classical Hour (WKOW): "Jota Aragones," Glincka; "Symphony No. 3," Gliere . . .
 FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Don Juan," Gluck.
 11:30 p.m.—Sylvan Levin Concert (WISC): Gabor Carelli, tenor; Ellen Faulk, soprano.
 * * *
Variety
 5:30 p.m. — The Big Show (WIBA): Vera Lynn, Herb Shriner.

happy
 happy
 NEW year

By special arrangements with MGM, radio
 Hollywood-Star programs in 6½ evenin dy, drama, music, variety!

SUNDAY
 8:15 pm—Marlene Dietrich: Cafe Istanbul
 10:30 pm—Gracie Fields: Gracie Fields

MONDAY
 7:30 pm—Famous Guest Stars: Crime I
 10:30 pm—Betty Davis: Woman of the

TUESDAY
 7:30 pm—Lew Ayres & Lionel Barrym
 10:30 pm—Orson Welles: The Black

WEDNESDAY
 8:00 pm—Mickey Rooney & Lewis Sto
 10:00 pm—Famous Guest Stars: MGM

THURSDAY
 10:30 pm—Errol Flynn: Modern Adver

FRIDAY
 10:30 pm—Ann Sothern: Adventures of

SATURDAY (full hour)
 7:30 pm—Famous Guest Stars: MGM

The movie stars

W I
 1480 ON Y