

Today's Radio Highlights

Special Events

9 p.m.—California Primary Review (WIBA); NBC concludes its four-month coverage of state primaries with broadcast from San Francisco with voices of Republican and Democratic candidates.

10:45 p.m. — Postmasters Assn. Convention (WKOW): Postmaster General Jesse Donaldson addresses convention on "Know Your Postal Service."

Drama

6 p.m.—Suspense (WBBM); Jack Benny gets into money troubles when he stars as "A Good and Faithful Servant," who takes self-awarded pension of $50,000 when he retires as store clerk.

7 p.m. — Romance (WBBM): "Sabbatical," first in a series of summer programs, about an English school master who takes a leave at Monte Carlo and meets an exotic European beauty.

7:30 p.m. — Broadway's My Beat (WBBM): Detective Danny Clover is sent to investigate the murder of a wealthy contractor whose wife plays a baffling game of wide-eyed innocence.

Crime Does Not Pay (WISC): Ward Wilson is the star for the drama, "Now That Man Down."

8 p.m.—The Big Hand (WISC): a story of a matador and the excitement and color of the bull fight arena in Mexico.

8:35 p.m. — Dangerous Assignment (WMAQ): Government agent Steve Mitchell goes to France to find one million dollars in counterfeit money the Nazis hid there during World War II.

10:30 p.m.—Woman of the Year (WISC): should Tess Harding, famous international columnist, plan for motherhood? That's the question posed by her husband, Sam Craig.

11:30 p.m. — Proudly We Hail (WISC): story saluting the Army map service, "Maps by the Millions."

Religion

10:15 p.m.—Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): the Rev. Andrew H. Lambright, Plymouth Congregational Church.

Music

11 a.m. — Jack Berch (WISC): program in honor of June brides with Jack singing "June Night," "Whistle My Love" and "I'm in the Mood for Love."

4:30 p.m.—Music of the Masters (WIBA): "Konzertstuck for Piano and Orchestra," by Schumann. . . . Curt Massey (WBBM); and Martha Tilton sing "I'm Yours," "Ho Hum" and "Ho Ho."

7 p.m. — Show Train (WIBA): Gordon MacRae and Dorothy Waronskjold present "Minstrel Boy," a story of Ireland's great songwriter Tom Moore.

7:30 p.m.—Concert Hour (WIBA): baritone Leonard Warren sings "Until," "Blow the Man Down" and "On the Road to Mandalay."

8 p.m. — Great Artists (WIBA): Bidu Sayao, soprano, sings "L'Invitation au Voyage," "Lover, Come Back to Me" and "Addio" from "La Boheme."

8:30 p. m. — Band of America (WIBA): Paul Lavalle and the Band give June a sendoff with "Wedding March," "I Love You Truly" "The Bride Wore Blue".

9 p. m.—FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Abdelazar Suite" by Purcell.

Sports

12:25 p. m. — Baseball: Brooklyn Dodgers vs. Chicago Cubs.

5:55 p. m. — Baseball Roundup (WISC): Frankie Frisch, one of baseball's great names, begins new sports series.

Discussion

8 p. m.—Cooper Union Forum (WHA-FM): "Housing--A Practical Solution". Robert C. Weaver, John Hay Whitney.

Farm Programs

12:30 p. m. — Farm Program (WHA): "More Alfalfa Seed Through Insect Control", J. T. Medler.

Miscellaneous

8 a. m. — Breakfast Club (WISC): Cindy Lord, 16-year-old songstress is guest vocalist on popular morning show.

10 a. m.—Homemakers Program (WHA): "Meats in Summer Fare", Robert W. Bray.

THEY PIONEERED

SHOREHAM, Vt. — (J.P.) — Ephriam Doolittle and his followers founded this town in 1776 on a "share the profit" basis. It was one of the first co-operative ventures in America.

BENNY