

Today's Radio Highlights

Drama

8 p.m.—Big Town (WBBM): woman breaks "Deadly Silence," prevents miscarriage of justice.

8:30 p.m.—Great Gildersleeve (WMAQ): seeking a gift for Marjorie's house-warming.

7 p.m.—Halls of Ivy (WIBA): woman mathematics professor, hired sight unseen, surprises campus.

7:30 p.m.—Dr. Christian (WKOW): story of adoption problems.

8:30 p.m.—Big Story (WIBA): Illinois city editor solves triple murder, restores peace to terrorized community . . . Mr. President (WISC): fight for treaty ratifications brings intrigue, threats of secession.

♦ ♦ ♦

Documentary

8:35 p.m.—Portrait of a City (WMAQ): Cincinnati, O.

♦ ♦ ♦

Music

7:45 a.m.—George Morgan (WHA): "Limehouse Blues," "Someday," "Beautiful Brown Eyes."

10 a.m.—Curt Massey Time (WGN): starting second year on Mutual.

11 a.m.—Jack Berch (WISC): "Wonderful Mother, Wonderful Dad," "Am I in Love."

4:30 p.m.—Music of the Masters (WHA): "Orpheus," Stravinsky . . . Curt Massey (WBBM): "Delicado," "With a Song in My Heart."

5:15 p.m.—Jack Smith (WBBM): and Dinah Shore; "Broken Hearted," "In the Good Old Summertime."

9 p.m.—FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Tales of Hoffman."

10:30 p.m.—Music of Manhattan (WIBA): "All Alone," "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "Stella by Starlight" . . . Music Comedy Theater (WISC): John Raitt, Eileen Barton, Melville Cooper in "Everybody Sings."

♦ ♦ ♦

Discussion

10:30 a.m.—Women Voters (WKOW): Mrs. W. N. Dudley interviews J. W. Clark, county agricultural agent, on conservation.

7:30 p.m.—Crossfire (WENR): Harold E. Stassen.

♦ ♦ ♦

Quiz

7 p. m.—Postmark U. S. A. (WISC): new program based on listeners' letters.

8 p. m.—Groucho Marx (WIBA): summer series, consisting of selected "You Bet Your Life Shows" of last two years.

♦ ♦ ♦

Religion

10:15 p. m.—Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): the Rev. Francis Doherty, Madison Catholic diocese.

♦ ♦ ♦

Sports

11:25 a. m.—Baseball (WIND):

