

KARLOFF*HEFLIN*Drama

11 a. m.—Eternal Light (WMAQ): story of man's struggle to maintain faith despite approaching blindness.

1:30 p. m.—Citizens of the World (WFOV): Norris E. Dodd.

3 p. m.—Canterbury Tales (WHA): "The Clerk of Oxford's Preamble."

3:30 p. m.—Martin Kane (WIBA): on trail of bank robbers . . . Proudly We Hall (WFOV): story of aircraft warning service.

4 p. m.—Hollywood Star Play-

FM channels: WIBA-FM

WISC-FM

101.5 M. WWOV (WISC)

98-1 M.

house (WIBA): Van Heflin in "Final Entry," tale of disgraced naval officer who tries to disappear . . . Texas Rangers (WMAQ): Joel McCrea solves murder case.

4:30 p. m.—The Chase (WMAQ): comedian's toupée gets him in trouble.

5 p. m.—Greatest Adventure (WFOV): "A Trip Into Space" . . . Meet Millie (WKOW): Audrey Totter's program has first anniversary.

6 p. m.—Family Theater (WGN): Jack Bailey in comedy of postman's experiences.

7 p. m.—Screen Guild Theater (WBBM): Barbara Stanwyck, Jeff Chandler in "Family Honeymoon."

7:30 p. m.—Best Plays (WIBA): "Angel Street," with Vincent Price, Judith Evelyn, Melville Cooper, Elizabeth Eustis . . . Playhouse on Broadway (WKOW): Arlene Dahl in "The Professor Gambles," with Charles Schultz, Princeton sophomore.

8:15 p. m.—Corliss Archer (WISC): Father tries to combine law business and home management.

8:30 p. m.—Inner Sanctum (WKOW): back on the air; Boris Karloff in "Birdsong for a Murderer."

Documentary

8:05 p. m.—The People Act (WBBM): college students help Delaware, O., awaken to civic responsibility.

Music

9 a. m.—Devotional Music (WHA): "Missa Papae Marcelli," Palestrina.