

Today's Radio Highlights

Special Events

11:45 a. m.—Labor Day (WIBA): Ed Wilson, Communication Workers union; Frank Davis, Meat Cutters and Butchers union; R. Lynn Torry, Oscar Mayer and Co.; Dick Huffman, Union Labor News.

7 p. m.—Labor Day 1952 (WISC): William Green, Allen S. Heywood, James B. Carey, H. C. Fleischer.

Music

7:45 a. m.—George Morgan (WIBA): "Easy on the Eyes," "Ol' Dan Tucker," "Happy Trails."

2:30 p. m.—Music You Want (WHA): "Nutteracker Suite."

4:30 p. m.—Music of the Masters (WHA): "Scottish Fantasy," Bruch... Curt Massey (WBBM): "The Waltz You Saved for Me."

5:15 p. m.—Jack Smith (WBBM): and Dinah Shore; "Swonderful," "Wish You Were Here."

5:30 p. m.—Club 15 (WBBM): "Down by the Ohio" "I'm Yours."

6:30 p. m.—Talent Scouts (WBBM): soprano, baritone, violinist, vocal quartet.

7 p. m.—Show Train (WIBA): with Lois Hunt; "Out of My Dreams," "Micaela's Air," "Comin' Through the Rye," "One Kiss."

8 p. m.—Great Artists (WIBA): with Eileen Farrell; "Heigh-Ho," "Night and Day," "In the Gloaming," "Fetes," "Vol'lo Sapete," "Serenade in Blue (WMFM): "The Continental," "Nature Boy."

8:30 p. m.—Band of America (WIBA): "Our Director," "Home Town Band," "Southern Cross," "Pahson Trombone," "March Slave."

9 p. m.—FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Symphony No. 8," Schubert.

10:30 p. m.—Music of Manhattan

(WIBA): "Count Every Star," "Somebody Stole My Gal," "Pent-house Serenade."

Drama

7:30 p. m.—Crime Done Not Pay (WISC): Morris Carnovsky in "Strange Token."

8:05 p. m.—Crime Fighters (WISC): "Plainclothes Patrolman."

9:15 p. m.—I Love a Mystery (WISC): 30,000,000 people vanish.

Religion

10:15 p. m.—Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): Rabbi Manfred Swarsensky, Temple Beth-El.

Baseball

10:55 a. m.—Cubs vs. Pirates (WIND): two games.

12:25 p. m.—White Sox vs. Tigers (WISC): first game.

3 p. m.—White Sox vs. Tigers (WISC-FM): second game.

Discussion

10:30 a. m.—Talks on Books (WHA): "The Sense of Nonsense."

11 a. m.—London Forum (WHA): "Leonardo da Vinci," Lord Samuel and Bertrand Russell.

3 p. m.—Bard of Avon (WHA): "Cleopatra, Serpentine of the Nile."

8 p. m.—Cooper Union Forum (WHA-FM): "Attacks on Public Education," E. O. Melby.

8:30 p. m.—War Front, Home Front (WISC): Tokyo and New York.

Politics

4 p. m.—Andrew G. Jacobson (WHA).

5:30 p. m.—George M. Smith (WHA).

Quiz

8 p. m.—Bob Hawk (WBBM): starting new season.

Farm Programs

12:15 p. m.—Farm Service (WIBA): I. F. Statz, Disabled American Veterans, and Frank Mayfield on Labor Day.

12:30 p. m.—Farm Program (WHA): "For Alfalfa, Let's Top-dress with Potash," C. J. Chapman; "Fall Weed Notes," George Briggs.

Miscellaneous

7:40 a. m.—Betty Crocker (WISC): on new three-a-day schedule; also at 3 and 5:25 p. m.

9 a. m.—Arthur Godfrey (WKOW): back from vacation.

10 a. m.—Paula Stone (WISC): and James Whitmore.

6:45 p. m.—Edward R. Murrow (WKOW): returns to the air.

10:30 p. m.—Edwin C. Hill (WISC): "The Human Side of the News" returns.

U.W. Sets Welcome for New Students

Forty-eight University of Wisconsin students from Madison are serving on committees to welcome new students during New Student Week at the university Sept. 15 through the 19th, the university announced Saturday afternoon.

They are:

Dorothy Stephenson, 1431 Williamson st.; Nancy Basford, 1147 Sherman ave.; Bob Rennick, 412 N. Murray st.; Pat Chandler, 2722 Oakridge ave.; Barbara Sokolski, 1217 Seminole highway; Jean Ulverson, 422 Castle pl.; Betty Rynders, 996 Monroe st.; Karen Sederholm, 2509 E. Dayton st.; Gail Turner, 2128 Kendall ave.; Sally Uhl, 1010 Harrison st.

Martha Coleman, 22 Burrows rd.; Mary Ann Hodel, 2134 W. Lawn ave.; Donna Ploog, 621 Emerson st.; Mary Quale, 230 E. Milwaukee st.; Bob Kesslick, 230 N. Hillside ter.; Richard Staehel, 2815 Union st.; David Aitken, 2803 Ridge rd.; Elsa Splett, 249 Division st.; Evelyn Thomson, 502 Dunning st.; Perry O'Neil, 1110 Mound st.; Patricia Diansby, 518 Ludington ave.; Monroe Evans, 2418 Gregory st.; Glenn Weavers, 1215 Mohawk dr.; Joan Andrea, 25 S. Charter st.; Ellen Hefty, 31 Hiawatha circle; Kay