

Today's Radio Highlights

Drama

6:30 p.m. — The Great Gildersleeve (WMAQ): Leroy's friend, Marvin, becomes valuable asset.

7 p.m. — My Son Jeep (WIBA): returns to air; children invent plan to keep Dr. Allison's nurse from leaving household.

FBI in Peace and War (WKOW): agents uncover high school baseball pool racket.

7:30 p.m. — Dr. Christian (WKOW): "The Postman Who Wanted to Sit."

8 p.m. — Playhouse on Broadway (WKOW): Franchot Tone in "The Sacrifice."

8:30 p.m. — Rogers of the Gazette (WKOW): Will Rogers, Jr., starts his new weekly show as a small town newspaper editor.

9 p.m. — Scarlet Pimpernel (WIBA): back on the air, starring Marius Goring; Pimpernel helps prisoners of French Revolution escape to England. . . 21st Precinct (WKOW): new series based on New York police cases, starring Everett Sloane.

10:35 p.m. — Deadline (WISC): new series presenting stories behind the headlines, with first story, "Death Watch," telling of newsman's prevention of a miscarriage of justice.

Music

11:25 a.m. — Jack Berch (WISC): "Sunshine Spreader," "I'd Love to Live in Loveland."

4 p.m. — Music of the Masters (WHA): "Sonata in C, Major for Piano Four Hands," Mozart.

4:30 p.m. — Curt Massey (WBBM): "Town and Country Polka," "Many Are the Times, Remembering."

8 p.m. — Concert (WBBM): Grant Park Symphony orchestra; Walter Hendl, conductor.

9 p.m. — FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Madame Butterfly" part one, Puccini.

Religion

10:15 p.m. — Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): the Rev. Lawrence Jung of the Madison Catholic Diocese.

Sport

12:25 p.m. — Baseball (WISC): White Sox vs. Tigers.

7:55 p.m. — Baseball (WISC): Braves vs. Cubs.

Miscellaneous

10 a.m. — Homemakers (WHA): "Is There a Case Against Cooking in Aluminum?" Maxine McDivitt.

12:15 p.m. — Farm Service (WIBA): Arno Jeidy, Bloomington; Henry Steiner, vocational ag instructor, Bloomington; Ralph Schwartz, assistant Grant County Agent, and Frank Mayfield on "Pasture for Hogs and Beef."

GORING