

Today's Radio Highlights

Drama

7 p.m.—FBI in Peace and War (WKOW): Unexpected hospitality traps "wanted" criminal.

7:30 p.m. — Dr. Christian (WKOW): Problems of a widow, her suitor, and the young lady's mother are solved in "The Amazing Hour" . . . Crime Fighters (WISC): How a "county prosecutor" operates in curbing crime in his area.

8 p.m. — Playhouse on Broadway (WKOW): Melvyn Douglas stars as the tragic victim of alcoholism in "Lost Weekend" . . .

Mr. President (WISC): Edward Arnold as the Chief Executive plans a precedent-setting resignation.

9 p.m. — Adventures of the Scarlet Pimpernel (WIBA): Murder of a caretaker causes fear of a planned invasion of England.

10:35 p.m. — Deadline (WISC): Reporter uncovers clue that sets an innocent man free.

♦ ♦ ♦

DOUGLAS

Variety

6:30 p.m. — The Great Gildersleeve (WMAQ): Spray gun causes neighborhood friction.

7 p.m.—My Son Jeep (WIBA): Family sanity disrupted by Peggy's surrealistic painting.

♦ ♦ ♦

Music

11:25 a.m. — Jack Berch (WISC): "When You Wore a Tulip," "Ramona."

8 p.m. — Grant Park Symphony (WBBM): Soprano Lois Marshall, soloist, will sing "Leise, leise" from Weber's "Der Freischutz"; "Pace, pace, mio Dio" from "La Forza del Destino" by Verdi.

♦ ♦ ♦

Religion

10:15 p.m. — Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): the Rev. Frederick Wolff of Glenwood Moravian church.

♦ ♦ ♦

Quiz

8 p.m. — Best of Groucho (WIBA): Rebroadcast of top Groucho Marx quiz programs.

8:30 p.m. — Truth or Consequences (WIBA): Actress Joan Vohs is guest at Camp Stoneman, Calif., performance.

♦ ♦ ♦

Discussion

12 noon — Second Mrs. Burton (WBBM): Doris Day guests as Family Counselor.

1 p.m. — Chapter A Day (WHA): "The Great American Tradition."

10:30 p.m. — White House Report (WIBA): new series with four top reporters interpreting news of Washington; first guest