

Today's Radio Highlights

Drama

7 p. m.—FBI in Peace and War (WKOW): Bookmaking syndicate rents private phones to take bets unknown to 300 homeowners.

7:30 p. m. — Dr. Christian (WKOW): A father learns to assume more responsibility in the care of his first child in "Cigars for Two."

8 p. m. — Radio Playhouse (WISC): "Martha Akers," portrait of a selfish woman who changes in love, stars Olive Deering and James Gregory, with Joseph Cotten narrating story.

8:30 p. m. — Crime Classics (WKOW): Wife makes 18th century Blackbeard out of her husband in "Blackbeard's Fourteenth Wife" . . . Big Story (WIBA): Reporter discovers criminal negligence in "rest home" for alcoholics.

9:15 p. m.—Mystery Theater (WISC): A carefully developed scotch-and-cyanide highball takes two lives and almost a third before scheme traps killer.

11:45 p. m.—Deadline (WISC): "Armistice, '53."

♦ ♦ ♦

Music

6:30 a. m.—Sons of Pioneers (WIBA): "Song of the Pioneers," "Curly Joe From Idaho," "The Rose of Tralee."

7:45 a. m.—Robin Hood Show (WIBA): "Let's Live a Little," "Skyball Paint," "Church in the Wildwood."

11:25 a. m. — Jack Berch (WISC): "Little Girl" and "America's Prayer."

3 p. m.—Music of the Masters (WHA): "Kreisleriana," Schumann.

5:30 p. m. — Curt Massey (WBBM): "Don't Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes," "Papaya Mama," "Many Times."

7:15 p. m. — Sammy Kaye (WISC): Fran Warren singing "A Sunday Kind of Love."

9 p. m. — FM Concert (WHA-FM): "Damnation of Faust," Berlioz . . . Perry Como (WISC): Ray Anthony joins Mitch Ayers' orchestra in presenting "Drag-net" arrangement.

♦ ♦ ♦

Discussion

10:30 a. m.—League of Women Voters (WHA): the Rev. Alfred Swan of First Congregational church will talk on building world peace through united action as Armistice Day theme.

2:45 p. m. — Education Week (WIBU): "Your Responsibility for Good Schools."

3:45 p. m. — Armistice Day (WISC): Highlights of observance from Arlington National cemetery.

7 p. m. — Education Week (WISC): "Building National Strength" by Dr. Clifford Little.

8:30 p. m.—Bahai Assembly (WISC): "Two Roads We Face."

♦ ♦ ♦

Sports

5:45 p.m. — Sports Parade (WIBA): George Lamphear, UW freshman football coach, previews Friday's intersquad game.

♦ ♦ ♦

Religion

10:15 p.m.—Your Pastor Speaks (WIBA): the Rev. J. G. Neault of St. Joseph's church.

♦ ♦ ♦

Farm Programs

12:15 p.m. — Farm Service (WIBA): "Mid-Winter Pigs go to Market in January and February," with Louis Salzwedel, Markesan; Francis Pateek, Green Lake County Agent, and Frank