Helen Wills Moody Notre Dame Five to Try Comeback Without Dramatics

By DAVID J. WALSH

(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, N. Y.—(INS)—
Three years ago, Helen Wills Moody, easily the most dramatic figure in women's lawn tennis, uddenly decided to play a comeback in the Wimbledon championships and, probably unconsciously, produced an almost romantic episode with her "die hard" last set win over Helen Jacobs in the final round.

Today, I'm able to state for the first time that Mrs. Moody means, hopes and intends to repeat the performance, this time without the fascimile broadcasting, was dead play in the Wimbledon all-corners today at 70. Fifteen years ago, for the first time in history, he American singles at Forest Hills broadcast pictures and text matter and, all told, have the time of her by wireless from London to other young life. The latter statement is to be taken literally. Just for Fun

"What of it?" she is reported to have said to friends in California when told that her lack of tournament "edge" would get her knock-ST. LOUIS, Mo.—(INS)—Jack ed off at Wimbledon. "Always Trammell, colored heavyweight of before, I played there to protect Atlanta, Ga., today held a one- my prestige. This time, I'll be sided decision over Andrew Leng-playing for fun and if somebody beats me in the first round—I repeat, what of it? I'll still have my That's hardly in keeping with the little lady of the impassive poker expression and the so called 'killer" instinct we all loved to prate about a few years ago.

It doesn't even team up with her entirely appealing behavior when "down" at match-point at 5-2 against Miss Jacobs in the final set, she produced an effort that won't miss, couldn't and can't with any American to whom courage is the supreme virtue.

In Other Words

We, as a matter of fact, always nade a point of Mrs. Moody's "coldness" on the courts and probably we'd still be at it today, not recognizing meantime that the lady has undergone quite a conspicuous change.

In the first place, she has stopped being emotionally restrained and proved it by tossing her rac- and Joe Lewis. quet into the air with almost schoolgirl enthusiasm when she Sterling Beer and scored the final point against Miss Jacobs three years ago. In the second, she apparently is no longer thinking in terms of headlines. In other words, the lady is almost an idealistic amateur today.
