Famous Jockey Is Near Death

Totala 10 5 11

MIAMI, Fla. - (INS) - A onetime famous jockey who rode for Queen Victoria and "Diamond Jim' Brady—Jimmie Martin, now 73 years old—was near death here today of heart disease.

Referce: Steve Madsen, Oregon.

The shabby, penniless man, whose identity was established by papers in his pockets, was brought to a local hospital when he collapsed on the highway near the city limits on the north side of Miami, He had hitch-hiked here from West Palm Beach, he said, after regaining consciousness. Martin was forced to retire in 1904 after 21 years of racing because of advancing years. He lost a fortune of reportedly a half million dollars in the stock market crash of 1929. Since then he has eked out a meager living
