'Die Meistersinger' in Part Features Broadcasts Tonight

Bing Crosby, above, the master of unique phraseology on the Thursday night Music Hall, is about the most casual radio rehearser in Hollywood. While going over numbers with John Scott Trotter's orchestra, Bing sings with a pipe in his mouth. The pipe has always remained unlit until recently when Crosby acquired the technique of lighting up in the middle of a song.

A portion of Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" will be broadcast at 9:15 tonight from the stage of New York's Metropolitan Opera house through NBC-WIBA. The cast will include Elisabeth Retberg, Doris Doe, Charles Kullman, and Frederick Schorr.

Walsh Twins Face Complaint by Promoter

MILWAUKEE — A complaint against the boxing Walsh twins of the University of Wisconsin has been filed with the state athletic commission, which is to consider their case at next week's meeting.

The twins, Art and Jim, were booked for bouts on an amateur program at Oshkosh Wednesday night, but notified the promoter, the Amateur Sports Association of Oshkosh, last Friday that the press of school work would prevent them from appearing.

G. J. Mulva, president of the association, thereupon asked the commission to take action, alleging the twins gave insufficient notice of withdrawal.

Heath's Bat Gives Brewers 5-2 Win

MILWAUKEE — (U.P.) — Convinced that they have returned to the victory road, the Milwaukee Brewers baseball team sought today to wind up a three-game series with the Columbus Red Birds on the credit side of the ledger.

Manager Mickey Heath slammed out a triple Wednesday to even the series after the Red Birds had broken up the Brewers' seven-game winning streak the day before.

Heath's three-bagger came in the sixth with bases loaded and chalked up a 5-2 triumph. The Brewers are only two games behind the Association leaders.

Sparta, La Crosse Logan Nines Win

Sparta defeated Portage, 6-4, and La Crosse Logan topped Viroqua, 5-3, Tuesday afternoon in the opening games of the South Central high school conference baseball schedule.

Sparta scored its two winning runs with two out in the sixth inning on a walk, a hit batsman and singles by Showen and Benedict. The Spartans had a 6-5 edge in hitting. Robertshaw, pitcher, had two of Portage's hits.

Ken Knutson, veteran southpaw, limited Viroqua to one hit as Logan won. Logan collected five hits off DeVerne Vig and Clements. Knutson fanned 10.
