Radio News and Programs

Vocalist Nann Wynn, left, and Babs of the "Smoothies" trio salute their boss, Maestro Hal Kemp, in anticipation of his 13th radio anniversary, to be celebrated Aug. 22, during the "Time to Shine" program over Columbia network. It was just 13 years ago that Kemp conducted his seven-piece "Merrymakers" band in a broadcast over an Atlanta, Ga., station.

Arturo Toscanini will conduct a performance of Verdi's "Requiem" during a broadcast from the International Music festival at Lucerne, Switzerland, at 2 p. m. Wednesday over WENR and at 2:30 on WIBA.

Although it wasn't planned that way, exploding of superstitions by a dozen of the world's great universities will keynote the Human Adventure broadcast of the University of Chicago on WBBM at 6 tonight.

So-called "racial superiority," belief that children instinctively fear certain animals, and the once popular belief that "X-ray opera glasses" could make a Lady Godiva out of Juliet are among the superstitions scheduled to be blown up in the fast-paced dramatic hour.

The story of Roentgen's eight-weeks hibernation in his laboratory during the experiments in which X-rays were discovered furnishes a colorful episode in the Human Adventure. How later medical and commercial development of the rays flashed through a bullet-wound case in Toronto and a professor's umbrella handle in London will also be told in the popular educational show tonight.

Other headliners tonight, classified for convenience:

Musical

7 p. m.—Grant Park Concert (WCFL): Chicago Symphony orchestra (on WGN at 8).

8:30 p. m.—Northerners (WGN): request program—"Moon Love," "Song of the Flame," "A Kiss in the Dark," "The Holy City."

10 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): Marian Anderson, Chaliapin, Lucrezia Bori recordings.

Dramatic

6:30 p. m. — Panama Canal (probably WMAQ): its 25th anniversary.

7:30 p. m. — Fulton Oursler (WENR): presents "We Too Are War Wounded," interviews Sgt. Alvin C. York.

8 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WIBA, WMAQ): smashes a murder syndicate.

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—H. V. Kaltenborn (WBBM): reports from London.

9:30 p. m.—Rep. William Lemke (probably WENR): "What Congress Did Not Do."

◊ ◊ ◊

Variety

6 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WMAQ): "Moon Love," "Blue Skies," plus Pascale's story, "Straight from Life" (on WIBA at 9:30).

7:30 p. m. — Alec Templeton (WIBA, WMAQ): gives the low-down on broadcasting, plays "The Last Chord," Mendelssohn's "Prelude in E Minor." . . . Bob Crosby (WBBM): "Moon Love," "White Sails," "Fidgety Feet."

8:30 p. m.—Uncle Walter's Doghouse (WMAQ): husband's alibi contest.

8:45 p. m. — Jackie Conrad (WIBA): and his Stylists of Melody, first broadcast (also at 10:15.)

Sorenson Shades Par in Opening Defense of Title

At Sorenson gave warning that he is ready to make a strong defense of his Monona golf course championship when he clipped two strokes off par in winning his first match from R. W. Boll, 8-7; Sorenson shot the first nine three under par and was one over on the second nine.

Bill McCormick was the outstanding upset victim, bowing to Dean Campbell, 3-2. Two matches went extra holes, E. J. Bakken beating Duane Nelson 1 up on the 20th and Charles Landl beating Don Hoff on the 19th.

The field has been reduced to 16; round of 16 pairings:

Upper Bracket

Art Sorenson vs. Dean Campbell, Harry Schuler vs. Robert Alwin, William Kelly vs. Frank Molinaro, E. J. Bakken vs. Robert Van Etten.

Lower Bracket

Robert Baker vs. Charles Landl, Leroy Lillesand vs. Dean Hedrick, W. R. Black vs. Earl Vetter, Ken Hartwick vs. Randall Schuman.

U. S. Davis Cup Outlook Is Uncertain

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—In the wake of the eastern grass courts tennis championships at Rye, N. Y., the American Davis cup outlook was as uncertain as ever, but the Wightman cup picture was brightened considerably.

No Australians played in the Rye tourney, so the Americans couldn't feel out the lads from "down under" who are expected to challenge for the Davis cup at Merion, Pa., next month. But the chaps who are expected to handle the No. 1 and No. 2 U. S. cup singles assignments made lackluster showings in the tourney.

Bobby Riggs of Chicago, Wimbledon champion, won the tourney for the third time by beating Frankie Parker of Pasadena in Sunday's final, but neither Bobby nor Frankie seemed to be playing up to cup standards. And no one else showed well enough to menace their cup jobs.

Van Horn a Year Away

Welby Van Horn of Los Angeles, the 18-year-old high school grad who proved the Rye sensation by making the semi-finals and giving Parker a four-set fight, is at least a year away from cup competition although he has the earmarks of a future champion. Others are not ready yet either—fellows like Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore.; Jack Kramer of Belvedere Gardens, Calif.; Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla., and Ed Peacock of Laguna Beach, Calif.

It seems certain, therefore, that Bobby and Frankie will be the singles players at Merion, and one of them or possibly both will perform in the doubles.

Right now the doubles situation is more uncertain than the singles. Gene Mako of Los Angeles, who used to pair with Don Budge in the cup doubles — before Don turned pro—gave off a bit of encouragement Sunday by his excellent showing in the doubles at Rye when he and Mulloy upset the Wimbledon champions, Riggs and Cooke. Mako seemed to have returned to peak form after lackadaisical performances in previous tourneys this season. If he displays the same form in the national doubles championships at Longwood, Mass., this week, Gene certainly will clinch a cup doubles berth and probably be partnered with Riggs or Parker.

U. S. Girls Are Tops

Meanwhile, everything seems to be tops with the American gals who will defend the Wightman cup against the British team at Forest Hills, August 25, 26. The U. S. women showed well compared to the British Wightman Cupers at Rye.

Blond Alice Marble, the statuesque Wimbledon and national champion, was in top form as she won the tourney title again Sunday by beating her doubles mate, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., in straight sets. And only two days before Mrs. Fabyan eliminated pretty Katherine Stammers, ace of the British team, by the lop-sided score, 6-1, 6-2.

In addition, the two American doubles teams who are expected to play in Wightman competition were finalists at Rye Saturday. Miss Marble and Mrs. Fabyan, Wimbledon and national champions, retained the eastern grass courts title by beating Dorothy Bundy and Mary Arnold, who never had played together before the tourney. Bundy and Arnold gave the champions such a stiff battle that they virtually clinched the No. 2 berth.

Chief McNutt Backer Heads for Milwaukee

INDIANAPOLIS— (U.P.) —Frank M. McHale, manager of Paul V. McNutt's campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1940, leaves today for Milwaukee, on one of his political junkets. He planned to swing on through western states, returning to Indianapolis about Sept. 20. He was accompanied by Mrs. McHale.

State's June Deaths Drop to 2,287

June deaths in Wisconsin this year were slightly below average, and heart disease and cancer, the state's two leading death causes, were the only causes to show higher than average tolls, the state board of health reported today.

The provisional monthly tally showed 2,287 June deaths from all causes, 78 less than the 6-year June average.

The board cited substantial reductions for the month in deaths of infants, deaths from puerperal causes, from accidents, pneumonia, nephritis and tuberculosis.

NESCO Reports Decreased Deficit

MILWAUKEE— (U.P.) —Net loss of $230,996 for the six months ended June 30 were reported today by the National Enameling and Stamping co. This represented an improvement over the same period last year, when the company had a deficit of $302,724.
