Bradley Pictures Ski Cabin Chain in Baraboo Hills

The picturesque 25-mile Baraboo range of hills in Sauk and Columbia counties could rival Norway as a setting for winter ski tours, Dave Bradley, Madisonian, and captain of the 1939 Dartmouth ski team, told 500 Wisconsin Hoofers winter sports enthusiasts in the Memorial Union Wednesday night.

Norway, Bradley said, presents an ideal spot for ski touring, in that winter sports fans have placed rest cabins all through its mountains.

"It is not impossible to conceive of a chain of cozy cabins through the Baraboo ranges," Bradley said. "It is the hilliest country nearby and it provides a beautiful setting as well as a suitable terrain for ski touring."

Bradley also described and showed pictures of his skiing experiences in Europe last winter. His films depicted skiing scenes in the Italian Alps and Norway.
