

Rollicking Comedy Due Wednesday At The Sigma

Story Of Woman's Greed And Selfishness Told In Ohio Picture; Gay Musical At The Quilna

A rollicking comedy "Never Give a Sucker an Even Break," commences Wednesday at the Sigma with W. C. Fields and Susan Miller in the leading roles. Completing the new bill will be "Outlaws of the Desert," thrilling western production. "Smilin' Thru," and "Flying Cadets," will show thru Tuesday.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be the final days for the showing of "The Little Foxes," at the Ohio theatre. This story, which tells of a woman's greed and selfishness, features Bette Davis, and Herbert Marshall. "They Died With Their Boots On," will open Thanksgiving Day.

Currently attracting patrons to the Quilna theatre is "Week-End in Havana," filmed in technicolor. Featuring Alice Faye, John Payne, Carmen Miranda and Cesar Romero, this production is packed with romance, music and comedy. Packed with action, "Blood and Sand," opened Tuesday at the Lyric. Handsome Tyrone Power and two lovely stars, Linda Darnell and Rita Hayworth, are the leading roles. Also on the bill is "Ride on Vaquero," with Cesar Romero as "The Cisco Kid."

Hailed as 1941's gayest laugh musical picture, "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," is showing at the State. Don Ameche and alluring Mary Martin sing many favorite tunes. "Blossoms in the Dust," filmed in technicolor, completes the program.

A woman's greed and selfishness forms the unusual theme of "The Little Foxes." Bette Davis' new starring vehicle at the Ohio. In one of the most compelling roles of her career, Miss Davis brings to the screen the domineering Regina Giddens of Lillian Hellman's famous play, and makes of her an unusually realistic character.

How Regina schemes to become rich, tries to force her husband to aid her, and finally, after sacrificing him and her daughter on the altar of her ambitions, blackmails her less adroit brothers to achieve an empty success, makes for gripping drama.

Contrasting sharply with the gay comedy of her recent "The Bride Came C.O.D.," the new offering gives Miss Davis exceptional opportunity for her talents as a dramatic actress. Herbert Marshall is cast as the disillusioned husband, Teresa Wright, the new "discovery," and Richard Carlson handle the romantic element.

The inimitable W. C. Fields returns to the screen in his latest comedy, "Never Give a Sucker an Even Break," starting next Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Fields has one of his strongest supporting casts in the new picture, including such well known players as Gloria Jean, Leon Errol, Butch and Buddy, Errol and others, all of whom appear as themselves. The story takes the comedian and his screen friends on a fantastic journey to Mexico. The action reaches its climax on a mountain top where Miss Miller and Miss Dumont dwell in solitary grandeur. Gloria Jean plays the role of Field's ward, and is featured in two elaborate song numbers.

Thanks to the assistance of Alice Faye, a nineteen year old graduate of Los Angeles' University high school is about to make her dreams come true by getting a job in a New York stage show.

The girl, Yvonne Cheneal, who had a couple of small parts in Pasadena Playhouse productions following her recent graduation. She has also been doing bits and extra parts in films to get additional experience and save money to get to New York.

While working on the opening production number of "Week-End in Havana" at the Quilna, she met Miss Faye and confided her ambitions to her.

Thru some friends in New York, she has been offered a chance to do a part which might lead to a turn conquered by a woman who throws him off when she is attracted by another.

Thousands of extras and hundreds of actors were employed to bring this sensational story to the screen. "Blood and Sand" combines all the sweep of a panorama with the sensitivity of a great love story.

The outstanding supporting cast includes Nazimova, Anthony Quinn, J. Carol Nash, John Carradine, Lynn Bari, Laird Creger and Vicente Gomez.
