Extension Asked on Burrows Park Drive Ban Deadline

A delegation of Maple Bluff property owners adjoining the city-owned Burrows park applied to City Manager Howell Friday afternoon for a 60-day time-extension on the city's order to stop using Burrows park drives for access to their homes.

The order was issued three months ago, to take effect July 1. Compliance would necessitate construction of a private roadway which would deprive the lot owners of an 18-foot strip which they now use as part of their yard frontage.

Atty. R. R. Conners, representing the group, asked time to study a means of complying with the order without constructing a new drive. Howell agreed to recommend the 60-day extension to the parks board but indicated he could see no way by which the property owners might avoid building their own road.

City Atty. Harold E. Hanson reminded the group that the city, in the early '20s, defended an expensive lawsuit involving the park property and its alleged use for purposes other than that for which it was donated to the city by the Burrows estate.

The property owners were accompanied by three Maple Bluff village officials, W. J. Rendall, Ray M. Stroud, and George Chatterton.

The petitioning group included David Wilson, H. A. Moore, Harold Breiby, Fred C. Suhr, Sadie Moehlman, R. W. Moehlman, Leon Perssion, and Hans Breiby.

Blackwood on Bridge

(By Easley R. Blackwood)

"You experts," complained Mr. Muzzy, "are always telling me that I should have finessed when I didn't, and vice versa.

"What I want to know is, how can you tell when to finesse—and when to forget about finessing and just lay down your high cards."

East dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

"Well, it's an art, Muzzy," said Mr. Champion airily. "You're either born with it or . . ."

"Oh, come off it," replied Mr. Muzzy angrily. "Probably the only time you're sure of the right play is when you're kibitzing and can see all the hands."

"Is that so?" snarled Mr. Champion. "Well, you could see all four hands and you still couldn't know what to do."

"Just a minute, gentlemen," put in Mr. Masters, who usually assumes the role of peace-maker.

"Muzzy asked a fair question. Let's outline for him the situations where the odds favor refusing the finesse."

Today's hand illustrates Mr. Masters' first point. The following series of hands will illustrate other situations where the finesse should be refused.

Mr. Champion opened the queen of hearts and Mr. Muzzy won with the ace. He immediately entered dummy with the king of clubs and led the jack of spades, letting it ride.

Here the fireworks started.

Mr. Champion won with the king of spades. He led the jack of hearts and Miss Brash ruffed.

She returned the queen of clubs, Mr. Muzzy played the ace, and Mr. Champion ruffed. The ace of diamonds provided the setting trick.

Would you have made this hand? You should have. And I'm not saying that because I know Mr. Champion had the king of spades. I'm just saying it because it's true.

Your main job here is not to locate the king of spades. It is to take 10 tricks.

This you can do by laying down the ace of spades at trick two and following with another spade. Now the opponent will win one spade trick instead of three.

When you have reason to fear a cross-ruff by the enemy, get as many of their trumps out as fast as you can.
