DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—Dr. and Mrs. Hall take a girl into their home as a housekeeper so that she may work her way through college. Her father is opposed to the plan until the Ivy President proves to him that his own education has been neglected. This winds up the season for "Halls of Ivy."

7:00—KNX—A fantastic murder plot, conceived in a Spanish castle, is the "Adventure of Philip Marlowe" tonight. Marlowe spends an exciting night guarding a tomb, a bloodthirsty caretaker and a seven-footer called Peter the Cruel.

8:30—KHJ—Film star Patricia Neal and Glenn Langa will be featured when "Family Theater" presents its bio-drama of the life of Robert Louis Stevenson.

9:00—KTED—From a spot that abounds with the lore of the old west, "The Cavaliers and Chris" give forth with their thrice weekly program of music and songs in a more modern vein.

9:30—KFI—Discovery of a corpse in a model house of a department store dispels all romantic notions for two young employes of the store in "The Case of Death Marked Down," the "Mr. District Attorney" drama for tonight.

TELE-TIPS

5:00—KTTV—"Walking Charley" Aldridge, well known western entertainer, gets into the saddle when he takes over the "Range Riders," which is the new title of the popular early evening program for youngsters.

7:30—KECA—Nancy Lee McCullom gets promoted from "cub reporter" to "star reporter" when the newest edition of "Tele-Teen Reporter" goes to press over Channel 7. This is teen-age talent show.

8:00—KNBH—Schools Out! Kay Kyser bids a farewell to all his students at the "College of Musical Knowledge." In celebration, the Honeydreamers bound around the campus to the strains of "Hoop-Dee-Doo" while thoughts of a seashore vacation come to Diane Sinclair and Kenny Spaulding as they dance to "By the Sea."

9:15—KTSL—Joan Edwards, "Your Favorite Hit Parade Girl," sings numbers ranging from classic to swing and presents well known personalities from the theatrical world.

Questions From Readers Answered by Criswell

Q. Will this oil lease in Colorado pay out? Should I make my home with my son? Bessie D. T.

A. Doubtful, so have your bank check it for you. Always place your money where you can watch it. You would be happier alone, as you are possessed of a truly independent spirit. You will face a very active year.

Q. Will I find my husband's ring? Will I sell my home? Mrs. Grace R. P.

A. Yes, next month. Yes, in October. Your nephew will work part-time in sales. He will be gainfully employed next year.

Q. Is there any oil on our land? Shall we sign this new lease? Mrs. Ben C. E.

A. Yes, but it will be some time before anything can be realized on it. Yes, but check thoroughly with a lawyer. Your business will prosper.

Q. Will I ever get my $300 back I loaned two years ago? Mrs. Marie S.

A. Yes, but you will take strong steps to do it. Get busy on it at once. You will work through this year. Both Art and Jack will come back in your life, but you will have become interested in someone else.

Q. Will my son make a success? Will I marry the man I like? Jiffy Sadie V.

A. Yes, but he will combine other services with his present one. Yes.

Q. Will I pass this examination? Will I ever marry again? Mrs. Alberta.

A. Yes, but it will not mean too much at the present time. Your choice of study could have been more practical, but you will make out o. k. as it will lead to a very happy conclusion. You will marry three more times, and each happily.

Q. Will I find my wedding ring? Will my sister and her husband visit us soon? Will I ever see this friend again? Will the Townsend Plan come through? Mrs. Wilda.

A. Yes, in the bureau with some other items. Yes. Yes. Yes, in 1952. You will write your friend of 40 years ago and you will visit him at his invitation.

Q. Will we get the money this former boarder owes us? Did Fred go with him or did he meet with foul play? Should our son change jobs? Mrs. A. G.

A. You should put this in the hands of a lawyer for collection at once. You will hear from Fred, as he is o. k. Your son will marry and then change jobs at a later date. You have many more active years ahead of you. You will take that trip.
