The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:00- KNX- Fibber McGee and Molly (Jim and Marian Jordan) again forsake their customary portrayals in comedy to enact the exciting yarn of a ride with death on "Suspense."

6:30 KFI A special broadcast of the Freedoms Foundation 1950, $100,000 National Freedoms Awards and presentation as given by Gen. Omar N. Bradley. (Editor's note: The Press-Telegram is a winner of Second Place Award of $300 and an Honor Medal for its editorial, "Washington's Birthday Thought: U. S. Can Keep Youth If It Will.")

7:00 KECA Eve Arden, comedienne of stage and screen, teams with Academy Award nominee William Holden in starring roles when the "Screen Guild Players" present the radio premiere of the comedy "Miss Grant Takes Richmond."

8:30 KHJ- Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Office of Wage Stabilization and chairman of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Services, will be the special interview guest tonight on the "Reporters' Roundup" broadcast.

9:30 KECA The new novel, "Boy at the Window," by Owen Dodson will be discussed tonight as "Authur Meets Critic."

TELE-TIPS

7:15- KTSL Magician Eddie Silverman will have as his "assistant" Raymond Holmquist, on the show, "It's a Neat Trick." The special illusions tonight will involve stamps!

8:00- KNBH Are soap operas true? Dave Willock and Cliff Arquette listen with disbelief to the trials and tribulations . . . and find out.

9:00 KTSL The winner naming this show will be announced tonight, as the "Old Time Movies" show the film, "The Silent Man," starring William S. Hart.

9:00 KECA Tonight Don Ameche plays host to Broadway stars Bambi Linn, Rod Alexander and a convention of antique dealers during the telecast of "Holiday Hotel."

9:00 KTTV Hope Emerson, stage and screen character actress, plays the "patient" to contestant Americo Berrochio's "doctor" in a sick-spelling gag on "Truth or Consequences."

Clothiers Select Gen. Eisenhower as Best Dressed

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. (AP) Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is the best-dressed man in America—in or out of uniform—a clothier group declared today.

That was the consensus at the 33rd annual convention of the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers, President Robert B. Underwood of Richmond, Va., said.

The convention's list of the "Ten Best Dressed Men in America" also included:

Comedian Bob Hope.

New York City Police Commissioner Thomas F. Murphy.

Ed Herlihy, radio and television master of ceremonies.

Phil Rizzuto of the New York Yankees.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, wealthy sportsman.

Dan Seymour, television producer and master of ceremonies.

Actor Gregory Peck.

Edward Fields, carpet manufacturer.

Comedian Jan Murray.

Gen. Eisenhower, the announcement said, was chosen for his "typical American look—always neat, never flashy." He received more first places than all the other candidates for honors combined.

Bob Hope scored with "his outstanding combinations of suits, shirts and ties."

Rizzuto "is the outstanding dresser in the sporting world, looking well dressed even when sliding into second base."

Peck was chosen "for his superb amalgamation of the eastern and western style trends."

Youth Council to Hear Atchley

A meeting of the State Youth Temperance Council will be held Saturday at 6 p. m. in Atlantic Avenue Methodist Church, with Mrs. Janet Galsco, State Youth Temperance Council director, of Temple City, in charge. The YTC has for its slogan, "A good time with a purpose."

Guest speaker will be Ewell Atchley, football player now studying for the ministry at La Sierra College near Arlington. His subject will be "Athletics Minus Alcohol." Speech contestants will compete in a diamond medal contest. Mrs. Alice Recknagel, local general secretary of the YTC is in charge of arrangements. Charles McCracken, state president, will emcee the program.

Dinner will be served at 6 p. m. by Women's Christian Temperance Union members. All young people between 12 and 30 years of age, are invited. Reservations must be made for dinner. If unable to attend the dinner, young people are urged to attend the program at 7:15 p. m.

ADS BUILD WATCH-REPAIR BUSINESS

Scores Kept Busy Fixing Timepieces

CHICAGO, Feb. 22. (AP) Saul Korkin, who never in his life fixed a timepiece, is running a growing watch repair business. He reached the conclusion he should go into the watch-repair field on a mail-order, mass-production basis. So he did.

"I wouldn't know the inside of a watch from the inside of a carburetor," he concedes.

So he got together with some men who did know, and on Aug. 15, 1950, established The Watchman, Inc. Korkin, 33 now, is president.

The young company buys parts in bulk quantities.

It employs specialists. Some of the watchmakers work on American movements; others on Swiss movements. Some work only on pocket watches; others on wristwatches. Some of the craftsmen specialize in hairsprings; others in setting jewels.

The firm offers three flat prices for standard watches. One is for a repair job alone; the second is for a repair job, new dial, crystal, case and band. With each goes a one-year guarantee.

Husky, crop-haired Korkin says 651 watches came in during September. The volume, he adds, was up to 1353 in December and to 2503 in January.

The number of employes in the company's two offices in Chicago has increased to 53.

Ninety-eight per cent of the business is from out of town. To keep it going and growing, Korkin buys television and radio time on six stations and space in some magazines. But the bulk of his advertising is placed in 27 newspapers.

Korkin's sights on the future are fixed high. With a twinkle in his eye, he comments:

"You know, Sears and Roebuck got their start in the watch business."

99.76 Pct. of Soviet Union Voters Play Safe at Polls

MOSCOW, Feb. 22. (AP) Today's election results in the Soviet Union:

Number voting in the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic last Sunday for the Supreme Soviet (legislature)—64,821,310—99.98 per cent of the total 64,832,312 eligible voters.

Number voting for the government's Communist and nonparty bloc candidates—64,665,587—99.76 per cent of those voting.

Number voting against the government slate—155,723—.24 per cent of the ballots.

The government announced these results today. Ten of the Soviet Union's 16 republics elected legislatures in Sunday's elections. The Russian Republic is by far the largest of the 16.

Unanimous election of Prime Minister Stalin to a legislative seat already had been announced. Among other Politburo members elected were V. M. Molotov, G. M. Malenkov, L. P. Beria, N. S. Khruschev and N. A. Bulganin.

Dmitri Shostakovich, the composer, was elected from a Leningrad district. In Moscow's Shchelkovo district, air force Lt. Gen. Vassily Stalin, the generalissimo's son, also was elected.

State Press Group to Meet Tomorrow

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 22. (AP) The Second Annual California Intercollegiate Press Association meets here tomorrow and Saturday. Delegates from 12 Southern California colleges are expected.

Dr. Joseph Brandt, head of UCLA's graduate school of journalism, will speak at a banquet tomorrow night.

Air-raid Defense of Formosa Given Realistic Tests

TAIPEI, Formosa, Feb. 22. (AP) Air-raid tests were held throughout northern Formosa today.

Chinese Nationalists predict Chinese Communists will attack this island when weather is favorable.

The thunder of antiaircraft guns gave realism to the practice in the port area of Keelung. Nationalist troops engaged in mock warfare with theoretical paratroops.

People fled from the streets in this capital city when the first warning sounded.

The cabinet issued fresh orders for building air-raid shelters and water reservoirs. It made plans to remove supplies from city to countryside and again urged all nonessential residents of Taipei to move out.

Vice Adm. Arthur D. Struble, commander of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, who is on a four-day tour of Formosa, conferred with Adm. Kwei Yung Ching at the Kaohsiung naval establishment in southwestern Formosa. Kwei's navy would have a vital role if the Reds attempt to invade Formosa.

Tomorrow, Struble will confer with Maj. Gen. Howard M. Turner, commander of the U. S. 13th Air Force, based at Clark Field in the Philippines. Turner is on one of his periodic visits to Formosa. Their conference will concern the defense of Formosa.
