LOOKING AND LISTENING

Hawthorne Show Is Eyed for CBS Network Airing

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. — Remember several weeks ago when this column broke the story on J. Andrew White as being the originator of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and how he started back in radio through the Hawthorne midnight show each Tuesday which is called "Encore Night?" In this first story on "Encore Night," it was predicted that with the excellent format and method of presentation, this show would go a long ways.

Looks like it is going a long way . . . coast-to-coast to be exact—with but a few changes. Yes, it is about to be given the full treatment by CBS and, best of all, for an early evening spot. No more keeping the eyelids open with toothpicks in order to catch this program.

The network plans an elaborate expansion of the show, complete with "production." The show, now an ad lib and casual catch-as-catch-can affair will have a new format to contain certain ideas in addition to the present gimmicks.

CBS's George Allen will produce the new version of the program, which will contain such added attractions as group singing around an old player piano, the introduction of very old sheet music for playing on said piano, the buying of collector's item records from the studio audience and the spotlighting of a variety of antiques, just to give the program an old, musty and mello flavor.

At present, it is on KNX only at midnight, Tuesdays, but the whole idea of this expansion is to make it a one-hour show suitable for early evening listening on a complete network basis.

The present regulars, who started with Hawthorne "just for the fun of it," now stand to come into a few bucks. Andy White, Milt Larsen, who owns all of the records played, and Ray Avery who is an authority on collector's items in platters will continue on with the new format, according to present plans.

* * *

ON TV . . . Sam Balter moves his renowned "Sportsbook" program into television tonight from KLAC (13) at 6:45 . . . Three widely varied pictures, running the full entertainment gamut provide a cinematic evening for fans of "Triple Feature Theater" from KECA (7) starting at 7 . . . More minstrel humor by the team of "Popcorn and Peanuts" during the "Dixie Showboat" from KTLA (5) at 7:15 . . . Actress Marie Windsor lends her beauty to KTLS's (2) "Bachelor's Haven" panel for the show starting at 8 . . . Plenty of excitement, faked and otherwise, as KTTV (11) goes on with the wrestling matches at 8:30 . . . A child's peril restores the human touch to a town in the drama "The Vigil" over KNBH (4) at 9.

* * *

ON RADIO . . . Millie is assigned to entertain a visiting Texas oil millionaire and takes him to Coney Island during the "Meet Millie" show from KNX at 6:30 . . . There's murder, mayhem and mystery as "George" does some supersleuthing on "The Peanut Case" from KHJ at 8 . . . Hey, kids! It's a story about the circus tonight on the Railroad Hour, when Gordon MacRae does "The Big Top, over KFI at 8:30 . . . Get out your best broom cause it's a story of witchcraft to be told on "Ghost Stories" from KECA at 9.

Louis Armstrong Escapes Blaze

HULL, Quebec. Aug. 6. (AP) Band leader Louis Armstrong escaped from a hotel and dance pavilion fire here yesterday in which one person was killed and at least six others were injured.

Rafael Gomez, 22, of New York, a drummer with the Lazero Quintero Trio which is engaged at another night spot, was killed. Jonita Hempe, 24, also of New York, a singer with the trio, was reported missing but later turned up in Montreal.

The fire broke out in the rambling wooden Standishall Hotel and dance pavilion where Armstrong's band has been appearing. His bass player, Dale Jones of Omaha, Neb., hurt his back seriously jumping from the roof of the building.

Two Aviators Drop In at Lunchtime

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 6. (AP) Two unexpected guests literally dropped in for lunch yesterday at the home of Homer Parker.

The Parker family was eating lunch when an airplane crashed into the bedroom—20 feet away.

The occupants of the light plane, Sgt. Chester T. Christopher and Lt. Douglas Wells of Randolph Air Force Base at San Antonio, suffered slight injuries.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

No. They should be the worst "fraid-cats" in the world, but they should also be cool-headed in emergencies. The University of Iowa Traffic Laboratory finds that three out of every four automobiles have defective brakes. Since the majority of drivers allow only a split-second margin in passing other cars, motorists are not as afraid as they should be. Many are not afraid enough of icy roads, steep hills and back seat drivers.

Answer to Question No. 2

Yes. Most parents think that any acquaintance, any kind-hearted elderly relative or even ten-year-old children are safe baby sitters. Many such persons are not even able to take care of themselves—let alone others, especially helpless children. A parents' consultation service cites deaths by fire, accidental poisonings, sudden illness, etc., as a result of such unwise trustfulness. One psychologist advocates the licensing of all baby sitters.

Answer to Question No. 3

Not basically. Anyhow, why do it? Unless they are extreme, one type is as happy as the other. The introvert who finds himself thinking too much about his troubles should get a hobby, or be more sociable. The extrovert who finds he's too loud or too excitable should tone down. Aur booklet, "How to Manage Your Feelings and Emotions" will help the introvert to expand and the extrovert to contract. Sent at cost, 15c (coin only), plus self - addressed, stamped envelope.

WANT TO LEARN SELF-CONTROL? AND EMOTIONS is Dr. Wiggam's new AND EMOTIONS is Dr. Wiggam's new illustrated booklet.

It describes clearly what happens to both your mind and body when your feelings and emotions conquer you and it also fully explains what you can do about it — how you can master your feelings and gain self-confidence.

This remarkable booklet is yours for 15c (in coin only). Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam care of this newspaper. Include a stamped (3c) self-addressed return envelope.

Solon's Jaw, Kicked by Horse, Not Broken

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP) X-rays of the jaw of Sen. Wayne Morse (R.-Ore.) do not show any sign of a fracture, an aid to the Senator said today, but further checks will be made.

Morse has been confined to Rockingham Memorial Hospital at Harrisonburg, Va., since Saturday when he was kicked in the jar by a horse at a horse show.

20 U. S. Casualties

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP) The Defense Department today identified 20 more U. S. battle casualties in Korea. List No. 370 reported one killed, 17 wounded, one missing in action and one injured.

U. N. Accused Over Socialized Housing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP) The National Association of Real Estate Boards has charged that the United Nations is promoting "socialized housing on an international scale."

This appears to us as an improper function of the U. N." Association President Alexander Summer of Newark, N. J., wrote Saturday in a letter to Ambassador Warren Austin, the chief U. S. delegate to the U. N.

Summer said "it is astonishing to us that the only Americans whose ideas and suggestions appear in the U. N. Housing Bulletin are government employes, college professors and persons active in promoting socialized housing in the United States."
