TIP OF THE MORNING: If the Bob Hope daytime show on NBC is successful, you can expect advertisers to start veering from the soap opera.

LAWRENCE JAMES, Argyle's chief of police, will be saluted Nov. 9 on a Mutual network show, "Official Detective," for his work in the capture of bandits who held up two Illinois banks last July.

The story of the capture will be reenacted on the program, and James will receive a gold watch in recognition of his help in the case.

James heard a police radio broadcast July 25 which told of robberies at Pearl City and Kent. When the robbers' car went speeding through Argyle, he recognized and chased it.

James was able to get enough of the license number so that agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation could identify the car and capture the holdup men.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY: East high school pupils will present a dramatization of "Jane Eyre" at 8 p. m. Friday, Oct. 31, in the school auditorium, with Judith Vander Meulen in the title role. George Schaefer will play Rochester.

Other parts will be handled by Margaret Stork, Patricia Paquin, Mary T. Smith, Diane Horalek, Carolyn Mitchell, Ruth Randall, Annett Landness, Barbara Noth, Mary Levenick, Belle Harris, Fred Anby, John Spenn, Ronald Hinrichs, and Harold Peekham.

Margaret William, speech instructor, is directing the play, with Arlene Barnett as student director.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "Freedom of speech is of no use to a man who has nothing to say for himself. Freedom of worship is of no use to a man who has lost his God. And freedom of the ballot is of no use to the man who is too lazy or indifferent to vote."—Robert E. Sherwood on "See You at the Polls" (NBC-WIBA).

BAND CONCERT: The Madison Vocational School Concert band will give its first concert of the season at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the auditorium of the Veterans Administration hospital. Evan Barracough will be soloist, playing "Beautiful Colorado." Barracough is principal of the baritone section. Elmer Ziegler is conductor.

FORUM: Something of a commentary on Madison's radio tastes—or what the broadcasters consider Madison's radio tastes to be—lies in the fact that not a single broadcast from the New York Herald Tribune forum has been booked on a city station, although at least four programs were scheduled on three networks. One was on CBS Sunday, another on CBS Monday.

Walter Lippmann will be on ABC at 8:15 tonight (WBBM will carry) and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai Stevenson will be on NBC at 10:30 tonight (not scheduled on a Chicago station).

FOOTBALL STORY: A clipping from an unidentified newspaper tells this story: "Hildegarde, who barely knows one end of a football from the other, is being credited with an assist in Ohio State's surprising victory over Wisconsin. This is why:

"Hildy, currently appearing in Columbus, Ohio, was asked by Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State to give his boys a pep talk Friday night, the eve of the big game with the Badgers. Hildy was at her inspirational best and Hayes, to show his appreciation, promised her the game's football, autographed by each member of the squad. In event the Buckeyes won. The result is now history and Hildy will receive the prized football Monday. But what makes her position embarrassing is that Hildegarde is widely advertised as a native of Wisconsin—whose college team she 'helped' defeat!"

'SPANISH BY RADIO': High praise for "Spanish by Radio," a University of Wisconsin radio-extension correspondence course, is given in the current issue of Latin

High Court to Rule on Union Discipline

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Supreme Court agreed Monday to decide whether the Taft-Hartley Act prohibits a union from disciplining its members by denying them work.

The tribunal will rule on the question in two cases involving two AFL unions—the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the radio officers division of the Commercial Telegraphers Union.

In other actions during a brief session, the court also: Held, in effect, that seven persons, including the regional director of Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's Union, must stand trial at Honolulu on charges of conspiring to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of this government.

Refused to review a lower court order in favor of Otis and Co., Cleveland banking firm, in its lengthy dispute with the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. over a 1948 stock deal.
