Phone Employees Give Young Patients Gifts

Employees of the Madison office of the Wisconsin Telephone Co. are providing two gifts for each of the 38 children now confined to the Morningside Sanatorium.

The office group had been prepared to present the gifts in person, complete with a Santa Claus, but eight children at the institution came down with chicken pox shortly before their scheduled visit.

It is the eighth consecutive years the office group has carried out the project.

Members of the committee were Mrs. Lola Walder, chair-

753 Cases of Polio Reported for Year

Wisconsin had 753 cases of polio up to the week ending Dec. 12, the state Board of Health reported Wednesday.

The figure compared to 2,144 for the same period of 1952. The report said four new cases had been reported—on Oneida, Clark, Dane and Douglas counties.

TIP OF THE MORNING

Pope Pius' Christmas message will be broadcast by WIBA and WIBA-FM at 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

A broadcast from the Holy Land including a message by Dr. Edwin Moll, formerly of Madison, will be carried by many Mutual stations, but none in the Madison area has scheduled the program. Dr. Moll is director of the Near East branch, Lutheran World Federation.

Robert Q. Lewis will have his own hour-long program on CBS-WKOW at 10 a.m. Saturdays starting Jan. 2.

Tom Sanborn, sophomore from Eagle River, has been named the Lamb-Cleland scholar for this year at Milton college. The student has been an accompanist and piano soloist in several college recitals, is a member of the Choral Union in three oratorios.

David M. Lillenthal, former Wisconsin public service commissioner, will speak on "Eisenhower's Peace Plan" on NBC Lecture Hall Saturday night.

Rosemary Clooney is being considered as a replacement for Ed Sullivan on "Talk of the Town" trip to Europe.

James Daly, seen here with Wisconsin Players and Maurice Evans, is credited with bringing a great increase in fan mail to "Foreign Intrigue."

Fredrick Martin claims to be the only bandman who didn't cut a new Christmas disc this year.

Jack Bailey, subbing for Jack Smith on "Place the Face," may become the permanent m.c.

Dick Powell's "Richard Diamond" radio show is expected to return to the air soon.

Johnny Olsen, former WIBA announcer who is host on NBC's "Second Chance," will do a series of 15-minute films based on show. They'll be screened at veterans' hospitals to show how people with physical handicaps have overcome their disabilities.

Johnny Ray will make a tour of one-night stands in South America in April.

Bing Crosby and Danny Kaye will record (separately) "All About You" by Sylvia Fine (Mrs. Kaye).

Frankie Laine will play two weeks at the Chicago theater starting April 18.

Terese Brewer's "Ricochet" has hit the 600,000 sales mark.

Martha Raye will return to recording with Mercury.

Just back from a 15-week European tour, Lionel Hampton is getting his band ready for his first Far East trip.

Cardinal Spellman Visits 2 Hospitals

SEUL, Korea (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York, on his third Christmas tour of Korea, Wednesday visited and chatted with some 480 American and Greek soldiers in two army hospitals.

The cardinal plans to spend eight days in Korea. He will say Christmas Day mass for some 6,500 troops of the U.S. 3rd division.

Ike Becomes 'First' Red Cross Member

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield opened the annual Red Cross fund drive Wednesday by enrolling President Eisenhower and putting the first membership button on the chief executive's lapel.

Pilgrims Stream into Bethlehem for Christmas

BETHLEHEM (AP)—Wealthy pilgrims from faraway lands were streaming into this impoverished little town Wednesday to bring monetary prosperity to a population whose chief occupation is maintaining sites reminiscent of the birth and life of Christ.

Despite handicaps ranging from adverse weather to military tension, the flow of travelers into the Jerusalem-Bethlehem area indicates this will be the most prosperous Christmas for the keepers of holy places since Palestine was split in the war between the Arabs and Jews in 1948.

Officials say at least 42 chartered planes are arriving here this week, in addition to 33 regularly scheduled flights.

Unaccounted other pilgrims take the long land route from Beirut, Lebanon and Amman, Jordan. Because of the shortage of accommodations here, some parties will stay in Bethlehem on Christmas Eve for midnight mass, and return to Damascus the same night.

Fears that Arab-Israeli military tension might frighten tourists away have not been borne out. After six Christmases of months ago the Soviet magazine New Times said Western speculation to this effect was a "slander" they worship the Prince of Peace.
