STENO of the MONTH

MARTHA DUBE
Stenographer
Conn. General Life Ins. Co.

A 1955 graduate of Stratford High School, Miss Dube enrolled for a course in SPEEDWRITING shortly after graduation. Martha, now happily employed in office work, tells us of enjoyed the SPEEDWRITING. Shorthand is the very most. It is a new adequate system, easy and quick to learn, and I'm glad to recommend it."

Skilled office workers are in great demand! Like Miss Dube and thousands of others throughout the country, become a SPEEDWRITING secretary or stenographer. Attend the first class free. Inquiries are welcome. No obligation whatever.

FUEL DRIVERS END NEW YORK STRIKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—(AP)—A five day strike of fuel truck drivers ended today. Mayor Robert F. Wagner said the hard won settlement saved the city by an eyelash from a catastrophe."

Striking teamsters union members voted a return to work and the first trucks started rolling at 4 p.m. Reluctance was voiced by some strikers but dealers and police said all of them were either back at work or ready to resume tomorrow.

Wagner supervised an all night bargaining session that twice threatened to blow up in his face. But he stuck it out and shortly before 9 a.m. was able to announce a settlement.

The truce involves a 30 cents an hour wage, pension and welfare package for 3,000 teamsters union drivers of coal and oil trucks. The strike began at midnight Sunday and by yesterday many homes were out of fuel or close to it.

The mayor was on the verge of evoking emergency powers when the settlement was reached. These would have included a shutdown of theaters, cabarets and other amusement spots in the world's greatest nighttime playland.

The teamsters had sought a package they estimated to total 39 cents an hour, although the dealers put the figure at 47 1-2 cents. The dealers' best offer prior to the settlement had been 27 1-2 cents an hour.

The settlement included 12 1-2 cents for wages that now average $2.40 an hour, plus 14 cents for pensions and 3 1-2 cents for welfare provisions. The terms are retroactive to Jan. 1 and run for two years.

Nearly all of the coal deliveries and about 60 per cent of fuel oil deliveries were cut off by the strike in all of the city except Staten Island.

Hotels and private apartment houses were hardest hit. Some of them ran out of fuel early in the week and electric heaters and gas ovens were the only recourse of tenants.

STATE COP'S SON, 12, MISSING FOR 24 HOURS

WALLINGFORD, Jan. 20—(AP) The 12-year-old son of a State policeman has been missing for 24 hours.

A police broadcast today said Frank M. Cassello, Jr., 12—brown hair and eyes, 110 pounds, five feet one inch tall and wearing brown trousers and a brown jacket—has not been seen since he left for classes at the Holy Trinity Parochial school Thursday morning.

"We're at our wits' end," said his father today.

Policeman Cassello, attached to the Hartford barracks, said his son seemed cheerful and in good spirits when he left for school with his 10-year-old brother, Richard. The brothers parted at a dry cleaning establishment where Frank stopped to drop off a suit belonging to his father.

The father said he knew of no reason for his son to run away, although he often had expressed a desire to visit friends in Port Chester, N. Y.

TWO FILMS SCHEDULED BY WONDER WORKSHOP

Wonder Workshop Junior Museum will show two films on its program today at 10:30 a. m. The first will be "Light and Shadow" and the second "This is Wild Life" . . . made in a zoo in Natal, South Africa.

The museum, located at 2185 Main street, is open to the public, admission free, from 3 to 5 p. m. Wednesdays and Fridays, and from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturdays. It is open to club groups Thursday afternoons, and to other groups by appointment.

Thin Jersey white furs for day. White beaver is the star over black dresses. Or white-on-snow stole, blue-or-sky jacket in beaver.

Miss J. P.—In the casual trend are white furs for day wear. New beaver colors take top honors now and for spring. It sounds silly, but what women isn't tired of dark colors now." A white hat, white neckwear or scarf pick up and perk us up.

URANIUM SPLITS PAIR IN CHAIN REACTION

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20.—(AP) A woman won a divorce yesterday after testifying her husband's hunt for uranium caused a chain reaction that split them apart.

Mrs. Catherine Kerasiotis, 27, said her husband, Peter, 35, went uranium hunting last spring and she didn't see him until August when he returned —empty-handed.

When she gave him a choice between further searching or saving their marriage, Mrs. Kerasiotis testified he replied, "I know it's out there some where and I'm going to keep looking and you or nobody else is going to stop me."

Under a property agreement, he will pay $150 monthly support for their four-year-old daughter plus 25 per cent of any riches he may find—uranium or otherwise—in the next 10 years.
