

Programs

Interview Mann-Galento out on Air

Sports will have a big place in the radio spotlight tonight. A blow-by-blow description of the 10-round heavyweight boxing bout between Nathan Mann and Tony Galento will be broadcast at 8 by WENR, with WIBA joining the network at 8:30. And "Roundy" Coughlin, State Journal sports columnist, will have Coach "Fuzzy" Douglas of the University of Wisconsin baseball team on his program at 7:15 over WIBA.

Other headliners tonight, classified:

Musical

6 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Ave Maria," Gounod; "One Night of Love," "One Alone," "Rolling Down to Rio," "Tschaikowsky's "Overture Miniature," Luigini's "Czardas," Strauss' "Emperor" waltz.

8 p. m.—Song Shop (WBBM): "Romance," "The Donkey Serenade," "Mighty Lak' a Rose," "One Song."

♦ ♦ ♦

Dramatic

7:30 p. m. — Crossroads (WENR) Anne Seymour as a modern Portia.

8 p. m.—First Nighter (WIBA, WMAQ): "A Wife for Philip Green."

♦ ♦ ♦

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Paul Whiteman (WBBM): at Duke university ball; "That's a Plenty," "Jamboree Jones," "Chansonette," "Toy Trumpet."

7 p. m. — Hollywood Hotel (WBBM): Kay Francis, Ian Hunter preview "My Bill."... George Alsen Revue (WLS): Tim and Irene open a country store.

♦ ♦ ♦

Miscellaneous

6 p. m. — Michigan Blossom Festival (WBBM): St. Joseph and Benton Harbor officials, Queen Dorothy McBride.

7:30 p. m. — Spelling Bee (WIBA): firemen compete.

♦ ♦ ♦

Fan Fare

Lucille Browning, graduate of Major Bowes' program, has been signed by the Metropolitan Opera for the 1938-9 season.

Joy Terry, aged seven, is the newest addition to the cast of "Your Family and Mine," heard Mondays through Fridays on the NBC-Red network. She plays "Barbara." Joy has been heard on "Raising Your Parents," "Our Barn," and "Coast to Coast on a Bus," all network features.

Reed Kennedy, baritone on the "Song Shop" programs, will visit his home town, Pittsburgh, between broadcasts this week and next. While there he will give a recital in the Third Presbyterian church, where he was formerly a choir boy.

Mary Margaret McBride, commentator, will be one of three to receive the University of Missouri award for distinguished service in journalism to be given in Columbia, Mo., this week.

Cissie Loftus, celebrated stage star of another day, comes to the microphone with her famous impersonations when she appears as a guest star on the "Magic Key" program over the NBC-Blue network Sunday.