

rm, pleasant voice, graceful car-of "most talented and glamorous unit in Chicago demonstrations.
C's Chicago studios.

* * * *

s Star ght; rts Set

Sports, the concert stage, Hollywood, and Broadway will contribute gueststars to Rudy Vallee's hour and the Music Hall tonight.
The Vallee guests, to be heard at 7 through WMAQ, will be Alice Marble, tennis star; Carmen Miranda, Brazilian singer; Erin O'Brien Moore, Broadway actress, and Lou Holtz, comedian. Bob Burns' visitors on the Music Hall, scheduled at 8 through WIBA-WMAQ, will be Franchot Tone and Shirley Deane of the movies and Count Solito de Solis, Italian pianist.

Other headlines tonight, classified for your convenience:

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—American Viewpoints (WBBM): Charles Fahy, general counsel for National Labor Relations Board, speaks on NLRB activities.

◆ ◆ ◆

Musical

7 p. m.—Toronto Promenade
Symphony (WENR): Dr. Hans Kindler, conductor; Enya Gonzalez, soprano; "Ballatella" from "I Pagliacci," Leoncavallo; "Symphony No. 4," Tschaiikowsky . . .
Grant Park Concert (WCFL).

◆ ◆ ◆

Dramatic

7 p. m.—America's Lost Plays (WIBA, WMAQ): "A Trip to Chl-natown."

8 p. m.—1,001 Wives (WENR):
"The Loyal Wife." . . . Columbia Workshop Festival (WBBM): "A Trip to Czardis."

◆ ◆ ◆

Fridaytime

10:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): crop insurance, lamb market reports,
Forest Rangers drama.

11:45 a. m.—Dinnerbell (WLS):
Indiana Tomato festival at Elwood.

1 p. m.—Legislative Forum
(WHA): Assemblyman Joseph A.
Schmits (R., Germantown) on "Home Rule and Tax Limitations."

3:15 p. m.—Arlington Park Race
(WIND): the Peoria, $1,500 event for three-year-olds.

4 p. m.—Democracy in Crisis
(WIBA, WMAQ): Prof. Dan E.
Clark of University of Oregon on "The History of American Democracy."

4:05 p. m.—Alma Kitchell's Brief Case (WENR): favorite program contest closes.