

ews and P

ists to Air opportunities ties Tonight

Four scientists will weigh science's duties and opportunities in today's world during a People's Platform broadcast at 8:30 tonight through WBBM. Participants in the discussion will be Dr. F. B. Jewett, president of the National Academy of Science; Dr. H. A. Sharpley, Harvard observatory director; Dr. K. A. Menninger, Topeka psychiatrist, and Watson Davis, director of Science service.

Other headliners tonight:

Drama

7 p. m. Gang Busters (WBBM): Eleanor Jarman, Chicago's "blonde tigress."

8 p. m.—Arch Oboler Play (WIBA, WMAQ): "The Bathysphere."

8:30 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WMAQ): "Tree of Promise."

* ♦ ♦ ♦

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Art for Your Sake (WTMJ): "Mme. de Pompadour" by Boucher (on WCFL at 8).

8 p. m.—Montparnasse Forum (WIND): Mrs. Josephine Logan, art patron; Dr. Nicholas Doman of University of Budapest; George E. DeHuszar, former adviser to Hungary's king.

> ♦ ♦

~~1 ad four scientists~~

Saturday radio

1 ad four scientists

Religion

6 p. m.—Message of Israel (WENR): Rabbi H. S. Goldstein on "Sabbath."

♦ ♦ ♦

Serious Music

9 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WCFL): "Egmont" overture, "Septuor in E Flat Major for Violin, Viola, Cello, Contrabass, Clarinet, Bassoon, and Horn, "Symphony No. 7"—all by Beethoven (on WIBA at 9:30).

♦ ♦ ♦

Popular Music

8 p. m.—Your Hit Parade (WBBM): "Great Day," "Hawaiian War Chant," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," plus week's biggest hits.

8:45 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "South of the Border," "Thine Alone."

9 p. m.—Benny Goodman (WIBA, WMAQ): "Boy Meets Horn," "Lilacs in the Rain," "Scatterbrain."

♦ ♦ ♦

Quiz

7:30 p. m.—Youth vs. Age (WIBA, WLS): with Vivyan Donner, fashion expert . . . Stop Me If You've Heard This One (WMAQ): Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou help Milton Berle's Gang Busters.

♦ ♦ ♦

Variety

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): with Eddie Peabody, Bobby Hastings, Henry Burr, others.