

Today's Radio Highlights

Helen Mack, the dark-eyed maid who scored in "His Girl Friday," flies from Hollywood to New York to become Charles Boyer's leading lady in a story of an imperiled passenger plane—WRC, 7 p. m.

Misinformation Thank You is the ultimate in quiz shows, this sired by the mighty Fred Allen—WRC, 8 p. m.

Joe E. Brown and pert Audrey Christie tell of the Casper Milque-toastish milkman who becomes the pride and joy of the prize ring, "The Milky Way"—WJSV, 8 p. m.

Lenox R. Lohr, president of the National Broadcasting Company, speaks in Montreal at the twenty-first anniversary of CEFC of the Assistant Secretary of War Louis O. Johnson—WMAL, 8:30 p. m.

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation—WMAL, 9 p. m.

Howard Barlow leads the Columbia Concert Orchestra in a Suite of Ancient Dances for oboe and strings, arranged by the American composer and teacher, William Spencer Johnson—WJSV, 9:30 p. m.

The debating societies of Maryland and National Universities attack the all-important "Isolation" question—WOL, 10 p. m.

Representative James W. Wadsworth (Republican), New York, speaks in behalf of Presidential Candidate Frank Gannett—WJSV, 10:15 P. M.

Student Peace Day—WJSV, 10:30 p. m.

Senator Harry F. Byrd (Democrat), Virginia—WMAL, 10:45 p. m.