

Uncle Ezra Plans His Own "Kettle Of Copper" Program

Little Five Watter In Rosedale To Do "Pot O' Gold" Burlesque; Singers To Do Stage Appearances In East

When Uncle Ezra's little five watter station down in Rosedale makes its debut Saturday at 10 p. m. over WEAJ, there will be a new feature—Kettle of Copper—to attract listeners. This is Uncle Ezra's version of radio's Pot O'Gold.

Louise Massey and the Westerners, and Bobby Hastings, boy soprano, will lead the National Barn Dance crew on a musical vacation tour of Central and South America and Hawaii, Saturday at 8 p. m. over WEAJ. The Westerners will sing "Rose of the Rio Grande" and Hastings' solo will be "Red Sails in the Sunset."

Radio notations . . . Pat Barrett created the Uncle Ezra role back in 1932, developed from his long experience in the theatre and radio. His broadcast is a combination of songs, philosophy, poetry, instrumental offerings and general tom foolery.

Dennis Day and Donald Dickson, prominent radio vocalists, will spend their summer vacations making personal appearance tours in the East . . . Irvin Berlin began his musical career at 16 as a singing waiter in a New York City restaurant. His first great song hit, "Alexander's Rag Time Band," (1911), marked the beginning of a long list of successes.

James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, will assume the role of special commentator at the conclusion of each day's sessions at the Chicago national convention. Genial Jim will sum up the high spots in a five minute broadcast from the convention floor in Chicago stadium.
