

'Forecast' Pr Horton, Mow 'Leave It to J

Edward Everett Horton and Alan Mowbray team up on the Columbia "Forecast" broadcast tonight to present P. G. Wodehouse's "Leave It to Jeeves" over WBBM at 7. Horton plays Bertie Wooster, gentleman-at-large, with Mowbray as the suave, precise, imperturbable gentleman's gentleman.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Tuesdaytime follow, classified:

Musical

6 p. m. — James Melton: (WMAQ): "La Reve" from "Manon."

6:30 p. m. — Concert Hour (WMAQ): Arthur Lora, flutist, solos Chaminade's "Concertino."

8 p. m. — Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): salute to Chicago with "Chicago," "Hail to Chicago," and "Go, You Northwestern."

8:10 p. m.—Grant Park (WIND): Julius Huen baritone, soloist with Chicago Symphony orchestra, Hans Lange directing.

8:30 p. m.—Yesterdays (WGN): songs of old New England.

Discussion

6:45 p. m. — Harold E. Stafford (WIBA): the Progressive candidate for governor, on "How Heil Destroys State Service."

8:30 p. m.—Adventure in Reading (WIBA): the story of Emily Dickinson and her poetry.

Variety

8:30 p. m. — Burns and Allen (WMAQ): Minnesota sends two lakes to be named.

Tuesdaytime

10:30 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Farm Homes—Temporary and Permanent."

4:15 p. m. — War Games (WBBM): Lt. Capt. Ray Perkins gives his impressions on the up-state New York war games.