

Cavalcade Offers Drama Of Ann Rutledge And Lincoln

Emancipator's Sweetheart Heroine Of Drama Over WEAF At 7:30 P. M.; Boake Carter Returns To Air Waves As Commentator At 8:30 P. M.

Ann Rutledge, Abraham Lincoln's first love, will be heroine of the Cavalcade of America drama over WEAF on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

That hard-to-please Cantor aide-de-camp, "Mr. Guffy," will rejoin Eddie on "Time to Smile" with Harry Von Zell, Dinah Shore, Bobby Sherwood, and his orchestra, dizzy Nan Rae and Maude Davis over WEAF Wednesday at 9 p. m.

Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge will cater to some of New York's "stoodents" starting Wednesday, when the 10 p. m.

Addresses by President Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie will be aired Wednesday evening. The President will speak at 9:15 over WEAF and WABC, while the Republican candidate will speak at 10:30 over WJZ, WABC and WOR.

program over WEAF will be heard from New York.

After a two-year absence from his listeners, Boake Carter, nationally known radio news commentator, will return to the microphone for the first time next Wednesday over WOR. The outspoken news analyst will bring his interpretations of world affairs to a nation-wide audience every Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday from 8:30 p. m. to 8:45.

Chirography in the sky—the whys and wherefores of sending your advertising money up in smoke, will be explained to Fred Allen fans on the Star theatre Wednesday, 9 p. m. over WABC, when Fred interviews Andy Stinis, a skywriter, as the person-you-don't-expect-to-meet.

"The Case of the Murdered Author" will be presented on the "Mr. District Attorney" broadcast Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. on WEAF. Mr. D. A. (played by Jay Jostyn) will be called upon to solve the mysterious murder of a detective story writer — whose slaying parallels one of his own plots! In support of Jostyn will be Vicki Vola, Len Doyle and a distinguished cast. Eddie Byron directs.

Jean Holloway, a pretty young playwright with footlight ambitions, will achieve her desire in a play of her own on "Manhattan At Midnight" over WJZ Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m. Jeanette Nolan, originally cast for the play postponed from last Wednesday, had to step out of the cast due to other commitments and Jean stepped in.

PARADE STARTS