

Differences between democratic and totalitarian education will be discussed in "Education in a Democracy," an American Education week program to be broadcast at 7 tonight over WIBA. The round-table also will include information on how American schools attempt to educate individual children.

Participants, impersonating respectively a clergyman, an attorney, and a teacher, will be Theodore Frost, Paul Hunter, Jr., and Roger Maas. The script was prepared by Idelle Lee, Carrie Rasmussen, Maas, and Frost.

◇ ◇ ◇

Other attractions tonight:

Discussion

9:15 p. m.—George V. Denny, Jr. (WENR): previews 1940-41 America's Town Meeting of the Air.

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Cavalcade of America (WMAQ): Benjamin Franklin's sly diplomacy at the court of Louis XVI . . . Met Mr. Meek (WBBM): Agatha surprises a dejected Mr. Meek with a birthday party.

7 p. m.—Playhouse (WMAQ): "She Married Her Boss."

8:30 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): "The Case of the Gold Augustus."

9 p. m.—Story-Drama by Olmsted (WIBA, WENR): Sherwood Anderson's "I Am a Fool."

9:30 p. m.—Doctors at Work (WIBA, WENR): new series; "Want to Be a Doctor?," drama of pre-medical education.

◇ ◇ ◇

Quiz

7 p. m.—Quiz Kids (WLS): Jack French, 14; Gloria Hunt, 14; Cynthia Cline, 15; Jack Lucal, 13; Richard Williams, 10, plus Rear Admiral John Downes.

9:30 p. m.—Hall of Sport (WGN): Kenneth L. Wilson and Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern; Bob Swisher of Chicago Bears; Herbert Graffis, Marvin McCarthy, sports writers.

◇ ◇ ◇

Music

6:15 p. m.—Lanny Ross (WBBM): "My Cousin from Milwaukee," "My Mother Would Love You," "Mother Machree."

8:30 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): "Espana Rhapsody," "Ave Maria" (Schubert), "Song of India."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Melody Street (WGN): "Trade Winds," "Capistrano," "Liza," dramatization of "Three O'clock in the Morning."

8 p. m.—Time to Smile (WMAQ): Eddie Cantor offers a one-day autobiography; Harry Von Zell, Dinah Shore, and glee club sing. . . . Fred Allen (WBBM): presents Douglas Leigh, Broadway impresario.