

Weird Law Case Scheduled For "Strange As It Seems"

Bing Crosby Returns To Music Hall Thursday Evening With List Of Stars As His Guests

One of the most baffling questions of justice ever to confound an English jury—the wierd case of a laborer who committed a murder after he'd served sentences for it—will be re-enacted on the Strange As It Seems program, Thursday, over WABC at 8:30 p. m.

Barry Wood and Virginia Verrill will be singing guest stars with Raymond Paige and his orchestra on Westinghouse Musical Americana Thursday at 10:30 p. m. over WEAf. The program includes:

"Strike Up the Band," "Dream Valley" and "Down Argentina Way."

With a minimum of trumpets and fanfare, Bing Crosby will slip into his old groove in the Music Hall Thursday, binging with him a carload of celebrities including Connie Boswell, Joel McCrea, William Frawley and Wingy Manone. John Scott Trotter's orchestra will Bob Burns, the Music Mads, and be there to welcome Bing back over WEAf at 9:00 p. m.

Fanny Brice as Baby Snooks will prove that any Grade A problem child can put the skids on progressive education when she tries to overcome Daddy's (Hanley Stafford) latest "psychological approach" during the comedy sketch Thursday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAf.

Contestants who can identify—and possibly imitate—the calls of such wild creatures as owls, coyotes and giraffe—may win cash on jovial Ed East's Ask-It Basket program Thursday, November 14 (CBS, 8 p. m., EST; and 8:30 p. m., PST).

Suddenly style conscious, Henry Aldrich starts with demands for a new pair of shoes, and works up from there in "The Aldrich Family," starring Eiza Stone, over WEAF Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

When John Barrymore presents his own idea of "Rudy's Day in Hollywood," on the Sealtest Rudy Vallee program Thursday, WEAf listeners will hear a barrel full of polysyllabic punch lines. "Slapsie" Maxie Rosenbloom has promised to give the great profile a helping hand when the show goes on the air at 10:00 p. m.
