

National Defense News Will Be Reported During Program

Leaders Of Industry To Tell What Each Line Is Attempting To Do In Gigantic Movement To Arm The Nation

The national defense news being made in broad fields and roaring factories will be revealed to America by nine of the nation's top industrial leaders in a special broadcast, Wednesday at 9 p. m. over WJZ.

Industries represented will vary from steel fabrication to the production of food and clothing for America's millions.

Speakers will be: Benjamin F. Fairless, vice president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, J. H. Kindelberger, vice president of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, Alvan Macauley, president of the Automobile Manufacturers-assy, William R. Boyd, executive vice president of the American Petroleum Institute; S. DeWitt Clough, president of the American Drug Manufacturers-assy, J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, C. T. Murchison, president of the Cotton Textile Institute; Paul S. Willis, president of the Associated Grocery Manufacturers of America, and Earl O. Shreve, president of the National Electrical Manufacturing-assy.

The program will originate in New York, Detroit, Chicago, Minneapolis and Washington, D. C.

Those mysterious six lessons from Madame LaZonga will all be cleared up Wednesday at 9:00 p. m. over WABC, when Fred Allen interviews as the "person-you-didn't expect to meet" Ruth Hopkins, dancing instructress from the Arthur Murray school. Kenny Baker will sing accompanied by Al Goodman's orchestra and the Martin singers.

"The Case of Accidents to Order" will be presented by "Mr. District Attorney" Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. The D. A., played by Jay Jostyn, will delve into fake accident racket involving a crooked doctor. Vicki Vola and Len Doyle will have featured roles as the D. A.'s chief helpers.

Eddie Cantor and his gang go for a bob-sled run of fun in a fanciful visit to the famous winter resort at Lake Placid in "Time To Smile" over WEAJ Wednesday at 9 p. m.

Mr. Meek, the soft-spoken so-called hero of "Meet Mr. Meek," is usually satisfied if his wife, Agatha, will just leave him alone and let him smoke his pipe in the parlor, but when Mortimer hears his family exclaiming over the prowess of the great explorer and adventurer, Mr. Biceps, he decides it's time to get out of his chair and impress his wife and daughter. When Mr. Biceps says any man can be an adventurer, "Mr. Meeks Seeks Adventure." But when Mortimer looks for adventure, it usually turns into trouble—and this time, it develops, is no exception.

A deep-sea diver seeks treasure but finds romance in Dick Dana's "Manhattan At Midnight" drama, starring Barbara Weeks, on the WJZ network Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.

"Zero Hour in Big Town" is the title of the "Big Town" broadcast scheduled for Wednesday evening, over WABC with a cast headed by Edward G. Robinson and Ona Munson.

ZION

ZION, Nov. 27—Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz and Mr. and Mrs. Don Sawmiller and daughter, Alice, had as their Sunday dinner guests, Mrs. William Cotner of Pueblo, Colo., Weslev Cotner of Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. William Moorman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winters, Charles Parks, John Swartz and son Ronald, Clyde Sawmiller of Lima, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller and son LaVerne of Needmore and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and daughter Marguerite. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. William Cotner of Pueblo, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller of near Delphos, were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Strayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Miller and son Max, and daughter, Marlene of Lima and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DeLong of Shawnee were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Strayer and sons Stanley and Ronald.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baker and Miss Betty Pierson of Lima were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Sawmiller and son Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Moyer and James Moyer of Lima were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kieswetter.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stockton and son Edward Lee and Dwayne Snyder of Lima were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Stockton.

The Middle River Christian church Women's Home and Foreign missionary met Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roush.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Bowers of Spencerville were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Foust.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Strayer and son Billy and daughter Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Strayer and sons Stanley and Ronald were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Strayer and daughters, Clara and Eunice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McDonel and daughter Lois Jean were Monday