

The Post Radio Time Table

8 a. m., WJSV and WOL—King George VI. child evacuees, fathers and brothers on war duty; seamen of the Royal Navy, members of the Polish Air Force, the Czech Army, Dominion Troop, all participate in an empirical observance of Christmas Under Fire. The King will be heard on WMAL from 9 until 9:10.

9:15, WMAL—"Is There a Santa Claus" asked Virginia O. Hanlon, of the New York Sun, in 1897. The answer, now so famous, is repeated on the Breakfast Club.

9:30, WOL—Recordings of carols recently made by the Choir Boys of the Washington Cathedral are aired by Mrs. James L. Givan.

10:30, WOL—Christmas service from the Fourth Presbyterian Church.

11:15, WOL—Maunder's "Song of Bethlehem" is sung by the Calvary Baptist Choir of New York.

12 noon, WOL—The Padre choristers and the bells of Santa Barbara's Christmas Mission.

1 p. m., WMAL—Edgar Bergen, C. McCarthy, Jack Benny, Gracie Fields, Bob Hope, Charles Laughton, Shirley Temple, Nelson Eddy, Lily Pons, Jascha Leifetz, Mischa Elman and Sophie Tucker are headliners in a two-hour greeting to England. Prime Minister McKenzie of Canada and Mayor LaGuardia are the more serious speakers.

3:30, WJS—London and New York exchange Christmas greetings in a novel "Boomerang" program, with Oliver Wakefield, Col. Stoopnagle, Lanny Ross, Sid Phillips and Sammy Kaye's Orchestra exchanging notes.

6:15, WJSV—Eamon de Valera, American-born prime minister of Eire, sends his greetings from Dublin.

8, WMAL—The Quiz Kids are joined in their Christmas Day exercises by a 12-year-old boy who has lived in South Africa most of those dozen years.

8:30, WJSV—The singing of New York's celebrated Paulist Choir is a highspot of Jean Hersholt's Dr. Christian episode.

9, WMAL—Greetings to British refugees.

10, WMAL—Christmas in the Army and the Navy.

10, WOL—Henrick Willem Van Loon is currently replacing the vacationing Raymond Gram Swing.

12 midnight, WABC (860 kilocycles from New York) and part of Columbia Broadcasting System air Christmas in the Americas, from Canada and South America.