

Pope Pius Speaks to Eucharistic Congress at 1:30 p. m. Thursday

Specialists in modern harmony are the "Modernaires," quartet heard on Columbia network's "Moonlight Serenade" program with Glenn Miller's orchestra and vocalist Paula Kelly. From top to bottom they are: Charles (Chuck) Goldstein, Ralph Brewster, Hal Dickinson and Bill Conway. Originally the boys set out to be musicians—took lessons on various types of instruments—just drifted into rhythm harmonizing.
