

Kay Kyser Plans Salute To Men In Air Industry

District Attorney Will Solve Stamp Thefts Leading To Murder; Gangster Melodrama Scheduled

The men employed in America's air defense industry will be saluted by Kay Kyser when his "College of Musical Knowledge" takes the air from a hangar of the Lockheed Aircraft Corp. plant here, Wednesday at 9 p. m. over WEAf.

Pilfering stamps is usually only a misdemeanor, but "The Case of the Blue Mauritius" brings murder in the wake of thievery for our "Mr. District Attorney" to solve in his broadcast Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over WEAf.

The Duke of Paducah (Whitey Ford) will become an aquatic authority and talk on swimming on "Plantation Party," Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. over WEAf.

A gangster melodrama will be served up on "Manhattan at Midnight" Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

The Thin Man's admiration for red-heads and his wife's passion for auction sales lead them to the solution of a crime which involves both during the episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man," to be heard over WEAf Wednesday, at 7 p. m. as the "Case of the Blue Pelican."

New York's Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia will be guest observer on the "Quiz Kids" broadcast Wednesday, at 7 p. m. over WJZ. The program will originate in New York, where the youngsters will be occupied during the week making their second appearance before Paramount movie cameras.

Men in service uniform of the Army and Navy will be guests of honor at the "Quizzer Baseball" broadcasts on WEAf Wednesday, at 8 p. m., and teams participating in the novel question-and-answer series will be drafted from service men in the audience.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20

WAPAKONETA

WAPAKONETA, Aug. 20 — Mrs. Edith Manning of Chicago, Ill., arrived here Sunday for a two-week visit as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kent and son, James, W. Auglaize-st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kaiser of Cincinnati were Sunday guests of Mrs. L. L. Bidle, W. Mechanic-st.

Miss Ruth McFarland of Dayton, former resident of this city, spent the week-end here with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Layton, S. Blackhoof-st., and their house guests, Mrs. Annue Taylor and daughters, Greta and Mathalie, of Knoxville, Tenn., Sunday motored to Columbus Grove where they attended the wedding of Miss Betty Myers to Charles Humphries.

Miss Pauline Gehrlich has returned to Ft. Wayne, Ind., where she is employed after spending the week-end here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elliott, Glynwood-av., and Mr. and Mrs. William Krieger, S. Blackhoof-st., spent the week-end in Toledo where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller.

S. L. Heisler of Royal Oak, Mich., arrived here Sunday to join his wife in an extended visit with friends and relatives here. Mrs. Heisler for the past several weeks has been the house guest of Mrs. Edward Daugherty, S. Black-