

Beauty Expert To Be Heard On "Dog House" Broadcast

Ramona Will Furnish Drama During Broadcast At 8:30 Via WEAF; Old Favorites Set For Waltz Time Hour

The addition of Ramona, a beauty expert, to the staff of Herman Jackson's barber shop will furnish the drama for "Uncle Walter's Dog House" Friday at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF under the title of "Shear Madness, or a Barber-ous Experience."

Herman's clip joint was failing, so his wife, Nancy, favored turning the place into a beauty parlor. Everything proceeded smoothly until Ramona arrived.

"I Dreamt That I Dwelt in Marble Halls" from "The Bohemian Girl" by Balfe will lift the curtain on "Waltz Time" starring Frank Munn, tenor, Friday, over WEAF, at 8 p. m.

Munn also will sing "Do You Care?" by Elliot-Quadling, "I Guess I'll Have to Dream the Rest" by Green, and "In a Corner of My Heart" by Youse-Robinson. Abe Lyman's orchestra will play "Tres Jolie Waltz" by Waldteufel, "When Your Love Is Gone" by Paul-Cremieux and "Danube Waves" by Ivanovici. The chorus will offer "What Word Is Sweeter Than Sweetheart?" by Taylor-Erickson.

Deems Taylor and Oscar Levant, most frequent guests on "Information Please," will be back to compete with the regular experts on the quiz session Friday, at 7:30 p. m. over WEAF.

Also on hand to answer Clifton Fadiman's posers will be John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams.

"Vox Pop" will move into the big main assembly building of the Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Division of the United Aircraft Corporation at East Hartford, Conn.,

for its broadcast, Friday, at 8 p. m., over WJZ.

Because of the urgent need for airplane, engines manufactured at the plant, work will not stop even for a moment when Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth, the "Vox Poppers," go on the air with their interviewees. The broadcast will be conducted against a background of noises made by the night shift at work turning out engines of all types for American and British planes.

"Yellowjack," a dramatic history of medicine's fight to isolate the typhoid germ . . . leading to Dr. Reed's discovery in Cuba of the yellow-fever bearing mosquito . . . will be dramatized by Charles Martin on the "P. M. Playhouse" over WABC Friday at 8 p. m. The drama was written by the late Sidney Howard and Paul De Kruif and is based on a chapter of "Microbe Hunters" by De Kruif.

PET TARANTULA KIND TO HAND THAT FEEDS IT

WACO, Tex., Sept. 5—(UP) —Oscar doesn't look it, but he is domesticated. He's the favorite pet of Dr. Leo T. Murray, curator of the Baylor University museum.

Murray captured the tarantula in Oklahoma and brought it to Waco in a glass bottle. Now Oscar lives in a cage, but not all the time.
