

Virginia Bruce To Be Guest On Herbert Marshall's Show

Film Star To Be First Accorded Honor As New Series Takes To The Air Via WJZ At 7 P. M. On Monday

Herbert Marshall has invited the leading lady of his latest motion picture, Virginia Bruce, to be his first guest when he starts his new series over WJZ Monday.

The program, which is heard at 7 p. m. will star the comedy duo of Bert Wheeler and Hank Ladd, the Merry Maes and a well-known orchestra to be announced.

After his recent All-Navy show from New York, Dr. Harry Hagen, the exuberant questionposer, will follow up with a quiz-zical salute to Uncle Sam's Marines, Monday. He will bring his "True or False" show across the continent to San Diego for a broadcast brain battle from the Marine base here.

The show, to be aired at 8:30 p. m., will match six Marine recruits in a wit war with a sextette of San Diego college coeds.

Featuring a musical selection more than once on a radio series is not supposed to be good showmanship; however, one of Donald Voorhees' arrangements of "Perpetual Motion," by Nicolo Paganini, has become so popular with listeners that it will be repeated Monday at 8 p. m. over WEAF. This arrangement was first heard last March. James Melton Francis White are again featured vocalists on the program, and the Kenneth Christie chorus sings the traditional "Annie Lisle."

Women's ways are sometimes foolish ways, but not when it comes to knowing their own husbands, as Blondie proves when Dagwood has a sudden attack of amnesia after Blondie refuses to allow him to join a football squad on the Blondie program Monday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Altho Dagwood wins, he loses and to Blondie goes the victory.
