

Follette, Mrs. So World Situation

Two Madison residents—one a senator, the other a housewife—will express their views on international affairs in broadcasts tonight.

Sen. La Follette (P., Wis.) will speak on "War or Peace for America" at 10:15 p. m. over WIBA.

Mrs. Katherine Hayden Salter, wife of Prof. J. T. Salter of the University of Wisconsin, will appear on the People's Platform over WBBM at 9:30. Mrs. Salter is a frequent contributor to The State Journal's Mail Bag department, and writes poetry under the name of Katherine Shepherd Hayden.

Mrs. Salter will join in a discussion of "The World We Want to Live In" with Prof. Walter C. Laves, University of Chicago; Armin Elmendorf, manufacturer, and Atty. Clay Judson, of the America First committee.

Other attractions tonight:

Drama

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): "Hold Back the River," story of sandhogs.

7:30 p. m.—The Bishop and the Gargoyle (WIBA): "The Item Of the Dead Man's Chest."

9:30 p. m.—Hot Copy (WMAQ): columnist saves switchman in train wreck case.

Sports

9 p. m.—Bill Stern (WMAQ): interviews Linda Darnell on Notre Dame-Navy game.

Music

6:30 p. m. — Wayne King (WBBM): "The Waltz You Saved For Me," Elmer's Tune," "My Buddy," "Misirlou."

8 p. m.—Theater Of the Air (WGN): Marion Claire and Igor Gorin in "The Fortune Teller."

8:30 p. m. — Frank Black Presents (WIBA): Mischa Mischa-koff, Frank Miller, and Artur Balsam in Beethoven's "Triple Concerto, Opus 56."

Discussion

9:15 p. m. — Daniel W. Bell (WMAQ): undersecretary of the treasury on "Know Your Taxes."

Variety

8 p. m. — Barn Dance (WLS): salutes Indian summer.

9 p. m. — Hemisphere Revue (WIBA): with Tito Guizar.

Miscellaneous

6 p. m. — Microphone Tour (WMAQ): Robert Montgomery of the films interviews London's "man on the street" in Piccadilly circus; John Gordon, editor, tells about publishing in a blitz; other features.

7:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WBBM): rocket-travel expert, advertisement collector, fire-engine carver, collector of Incan instruments.