To Tell Peacetime Possibilities Of Program Scheduled Via WEA
At 8:30 P. M.

ight be the reincarnation of Jules Verne—ve invented the submarine—will be guest man's "Hobby Lobby" program, Saturday r WEA.

en this ambitious inventor, Simon Lake, of C., perfected the submersible craft, it was using it primarily as a commercial vessel.

d, Mr. Lake llusioned to ment of deake will tell s important the scientific world, dwelling specifically upon the peacetime possibilities of the submarine.

Order a top-flight radio foreign correspondent to do a zoo gossip program and anything is apt to happen. It does in "What's New at the Zoo," a comedy drama about radio newshounds to be presented on "Knickerbocker Playhouse" Saturday at 8 p. m., over WEA.

The story concerns Tex Donohue, ace radio globe-trotter just returned from foreign lands, who is assigned to do a series of zoo broadcasts by his new boss, pretty Sally Hughes. A wrestling match with a lion quickly brings matters to a climax.

Anne Rogers, syndicated columnist, will come to the aid of a rehabilitated prison parolee being framed on an embezzlement charge, Saturday, during the WEA "Hot Copy" drama, at 10:30 p. m. Fern Persons plays the Rogers role, with Pat Murphy as Tom Blake, assistant prosecuting attorney.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 22 — (UP)—Paul Bellamy, editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and his bride, the former Mary J.
Mitchell, of Shaker Heights, today were on their way to a month's honeymoon in Bermuda and Nassau. The couple was married yesterday in First Unitarian church by Dr. Dilworth Lupton.

Japan proper, which occupies 36 per cent of the whole empire, is larger than England or Italy.
