... Tuesday at 9:30 p. m.

Bob Hope will play host to his old pal of the flickers, Pat O'Brien, during his WEA broadcast, Tuesday, at 10 p. m. The comedian's guest will ad some expert Hibetian heckling to the efforts of the principals of the regular cast, Jerry Colonna, Francis Langford and Skinnay Ennis.

"Whistling Cowboy," a song of the plains which was penned by Kay Toomey, New York jewelry designer, will be introduced by Fred Lowery, star whistler with Horace Heidt's orchestra, during the "Treasure Chest" program, Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m., over WEAF.

Ozzie Nelson, musical host for the Red Skelton Tuesday night show, will feature the Navy anthem, "Anchors Aweigh" on the program Tuesday, which is heard over WEA at 10:30 p. m. Ozzie Nelson and Harriet Hilliard will be heard in a novelty duet, "Ollie Ollie Out's In Free." Other numbers include, "Love Is" and "Central Avenue Shuffle." Red Skelton heading the show, with Wonderful Smith his chief stooge and heckler, furnishes the background for the comedy side of the program.

Mayor LaTrivia continues to be the bee in Fibber and Molly Mc-Gee's bonnets by blasting some well laid plans of Fibber's on the McGee program Tuesday, 9:30 p. m. via WEA. The King's Men will sing "Don't Ever Leave Me," and Martha Tilton will sing "The Last Time I Saw Paris." Billy Mills will close the program with "You Go Your Way."
