Flynn, as "Mr. Smith," wants to begin the courtship all over again, but "Mrs. Smith" (played by Miss Turner) has different ideas. The thought of a bit of freedom appeals to her and results in an involved situation with her lawyer, "Jeff Custer."

The state of Kentucky comes in for its share of radio's coast-to-coast spotlight on the Hour of Charm program for Sunday at 10 o'clock over WEAf, when Phil Spitalny and his famed all-girl orchestra dedicate their closing hymn of the evening — "Sweet Hour of Prayer" — to the officers and men stationed at Fort Knox.

How a wealthy Englishman almost causes his own death by forcing his daughter to marry a man she doesn't love, is the format of the Sherlock Holmes drama, heard on WEAf Sunday, at 10:30 p. m.
CST.

Three perennially popular folk tunes will be featured on "American Album of Familiar Music" Sunday, Feb. 8. Vivian della Chiesa will sing "Annie Laurie;" Frank Munn's tenor solo will be "All Through the Night," and orchestra and chorus will join in "O, Canada" at 9:30 p. m., over WEAf.

The vitally important invasion of Burma, with the fate of the Burma road hanging in the balance, will take the spotlight on Caesar Saerchinger's weekly "Story Behind the Headlines" Sunday, at 11:15 p. m., over WEAf. Opposition to the invading Japanese, and the remarkable defense of the Salween river by the RAF, will form a part of Saerchinger's news analysis.

The sudden wave of deaths by apoplexy, heart failure, measles and near-sightedness, in fact from everything but typhus or bullets, which has deprived Hitler of his top-ranking generals one after the other, is the subject of a satirical drama, "The Funeral of General von Blatz," on Sunday, at 11:30 p. m. over WEAf.
