p. m., EWT). Frank "Master of Maltitudes" Morgan will delve into some mysterious Morgania at the end of which the only mystery will be why Maestro Frank Tours and emcee John Conte stand for it.

Alan Hale, the screeled comedian and villian, who was scheduled to turn up at Ransom Sherman's "Grapevine Rancho" for a visit a few weeks ago but had to ask for a rain check, cashes in the check when he visits the Rancho on Thursday at 8 p. m., EWT over Station WABC.

The premiere of Pvt. Frank Loesser's new tune, "In My Arms," originally scheduled for the May 13 Bob Burns broadcast of "The Arkansas Traveler," has been postponed by Spike Jones and his City Slickers and will be heard instead on the Thursday airing over Station WEAH at 7:30 p. m., EWT. Jones and his cohorts are preparing a special arrangement of this new opus by the composer of "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition."

Kenneth Morrow, choir tenor, will offer "Sweet Hour of Prayer" as soloist on the "Hymns of All Churches" program Thursday (WEAF, 2:45 p. m., EWT).

It is wonderful how people's tastes change with the years.
When they are small, girls love dolls and little boys love soldiers.
When they get older the girls are crazy about soldiers and boys fall in love with dolls. However, one thing that doesn't seem to change in their affections, whether they are young or old, according to popularity rating, is the Thursday at 10 p. m. (EWT) variety revue on WEAH with Garry Moore, Jimmy, the Schnozzle Durante, and the Xavier Cugat orchestra with Georgina Gibbs as soloist.

Isabel Manning Hewson, spinner of unusual stories and domestic expert, will tell the story of the most unusual will in history during her "Morning Market Basket" program, Thursday, at 10 a. m., EWT, over WJZ.
